Gresham Family Reunion

The families of the late Frank and Mary Susan Gresham will be holding their family reunion on the third Sunday in May at the Hallsville Baptist Church. You are asked to bring a picnic basket and meet with friends and relatives.

Sandy Plain Senior Citizens

The senior citizens of the Sandy Plain community will have the opportunity to hear the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas A. Waddill, missionaries to Zambia, in Africa, at their meeting May 8th. at 6 p.m. They will show slides of their work and explain much of the work of the missionaries.

Mrs. Waddill is the former Lucille Howard, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Howard of Duplin County. She is a registered nurse and attended Nashville Bible College in Tennessee.

Members are reminded to turn in their recipes for the cook book being sponsored by the group.

Mayor Hall

Proclaims Nursing Home Week

Mayor Carolyn Hall has proclaimed the week of May 9-16 as Kenansville Nursing Home Week and is urging all citizens to visit nursing homes and participate in scheduled activities during the observance.

Julie Lane, activities director at Guardian Care, says the purpose of this annual observance, which begins on Mother's Day, is to honor the many residents and patients in long-term-care facilities, and to recognize the valuable service these facilities provide to the community.

National Nursing Home Week is sponsored by the N.C. Health Care Facilities

Association, and is designed to focus attention on the needs of the convalescent patient, the aged and chronically ill, and the quality of care provided by the profession in North Carolina. These activities are designed to arouse and involve the community's awareness of residents' needs and the impressive range of rehabilitation services provided by nursing homes.

The N.C. Health Care Facilities Association, one of 50 state associations affiliated with the American Health Care Association, represents both proprietary and non-proprietary nursing homes.

Methodist Workshop

The Goldsboro District of the United Methodist Church will conduct a workshop to introduce church school leaders to the new Sunday school literature that is available through the church. Those encouraged to attend are pastors, Sunday school superintendents, age-level coordinators, and chairpersons of the education work area, and teachers.

The workshops will be conducted in three different areas. The schedule is as follows: Jefferson United Methodist Church in Goldsboro on Monday, May 10 at 7:30-9 p.m.; Warsaw United Methodist Church on Tuesday, May 11 from 7:30-9 p.m.; and at Edgerton Memorial in Selma on Wednesday, May 12 at 7:30-9 p.m.

Costin

Appointed

Three new members have been appointed to the N.C. Day Care Advisory Council by Dr. Sarah Morrow, secretary of the N.C. Department of Human Resources.

The new appointees are: William J. Costin, a Duplin County commissioner from Warsaw; Rev. Douglas E. Remer, associate rector of St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Raleigh; and George Penick, assistant director of the Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation in Winston-Salem. All three were appointed for two-year terms.

The foggiest place in the United States is Cape Disappointment at the mouth of the Columbia River in Washington. It has about 106 days of fog a year.
