during the 18th annual Duplin Country Club Invitational tourney last weekend for this snapshot.

Duplin Pro Rick Green reports Magnolia's superstar Billy Potter captured the 18th annual DCC Invitational golf tournament last weekend with rounds of 69-73-142, two under par in the two-day event. Kinston's Joel Harris was two strokes back of Potter in the championship flight with rounds of 74-70-144, followed by Clinton's Gary Norris with 74-73. Goldsboro's Haywood Rose, 70-77, and Buster Johnson with 75-73.

Goldsboro's John Dees won top honors in the first flight, followed by Ike Riddick, Lynwood Daughtry, Lloyd Parker and Spiderman Mathis. Edenton's Randy Crabtree took second with Wrightsville Beach's John Mann, Bobby Batts was third and Arthur Benton and Hugh Carlton in fourth and fifth. Third flight honors went to Kinston's Brad Mizelle with second going to Longmeadow's Clifford Jones, Warsaw's class Fisher Carlton moved easily into third, followed by Edenton's Jim Lewis and Goldsboro's Ed Ezzell.

Jerry Smith, playing out of Magnolia, took top honors in the fourth while Edenton's Ray Griffen took second. Kenansville or Las Vegas' Mark Vinson took third and Edenton's Carl Forehand and Bob Piner fourth and fifth.

Green reports 75 players participated in the weekend tournament and other activities, and we wish to express appreciation to Southern Bank, Southern Products of Faison, Quinn Company, Guilford East, Branch Banking & Trust, Rose Hill Poultry, Duplin Times, Kenansville Drug Store and Golden Skillet of Warsaw, sponsors, and the fifteen players from Clinton and fourteen from Edenton who helped make the tournament one of the best. Thank you very much, Pro Rick Green.

Southern Wayne's Cletus Brock shot a two-day total of 150 last week to claim his fourth Carolinas Golf Writers tourney down in Myrtle Beach, S.C. Brock, a former star at Duplin County Club, also won the tourney in 1970, 1971 and 1974. We congratulate Cletus.

Rockfish Pro Jim Finch reports the team of Carolyn Brooks, Joe Brinson, Steve Edgerton and Paul Livingston won the Super Scramble staged at RCC of Wallace. Finch says the tourney started way back six months ago with 18 teams participating. Overall winners were presented awards at a club dinner. Betty Matthews led her team of Don Vest, Willie Futrelle and Bobby Williams to overall second. Brenda Strickland's team of Albert Council, Graham Phillips and Harold Kohne beat out Jean Blanchard's group of Pete McBride, Ray McLemore and Knott Teachey for second flight honors.

Finch also announces the Betty Matthews team of Don Vest, Willie Futrelle and Bobby Williams took top honors in the final round last Sunday with a low net 62. Carolyn Brooks' team of Joe Brinson, Steve Edgerton and Paul Livingston was second low with a 63.

Rockfish's Pro Jim Finch won low pro honors (69) in the Pro Lady held at Jacksonville last week. Finch's team of Gwenn Gideon, Carolyn Brooks and Martha Gurganus took fourth place with a 59.

Duplin Country Club Saturday and Sunday, May 22-23. Potter, playing out of Lakewood Country Club, had rounds of 69-73-142, two under par to win in a field of 75 players. Congratulations to a fine young golfer.

Duplin members and friends are in for a real treat the next time they are in the pro shop. Pro Green has completely turned things around and you won't know the place. Just journey out to see the new look and cast your eyes on the new merchandise.

RCC Pro Jim Finch of Wallace won $50 and came away pleased to make the cut in the N.C. PGA Section Championship Golf Tournament held at Grandfather Mountain, Way to go, Jim.
