

Houston-Aldridge United In Marriage

A candlelight ceremony was held on Saturday, May 19, at six o'clock in the evening, uniting in marriage Jerri Ann Aldridge and Laran Mark Houston. The double-ring ceremony was held in the Beaulville Presbyterian Church and was officiated by The Reverend G. Frank Sawyer.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Tucker of Pink Hill and the late Michael D. Aldridge. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Laran Houston of Beaulville. Grandparents of the bride are Mrs. Alma Aldridge of LaGrange, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Williams of Pink Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Tucker of Magnolia. Grandparents of the groom are Mrs. Delmar Houston and Mrs. Gordon Kennedy, both of Beaulville.

A program of classical and sacred music was rendered by Edgar J. Wells Jr., organist. A solo, "O Perfect Love" was sung by The Reverend David Dickey prior to the procession. For the benediction, "The Wedding Prayer" was sung by Mrs. Karen Albertson as the couple knelt on a satin-covered profile prie-dieu.

The couple spoke their nuptial vows before the altar setting centered with an oval floor-length fifteen-light brass arched candelabrum holding tall lighted tapers. Flanking this focal point stood two stately arrangements of summer flowers consisting of snaps, mums, carnations and roses interspersed with gypsophila. Two spiral brass candelabrum and two three-light candelabrams, along with green palms completed the setting. Satin streamers attached to the three-light candelabrum, marking off the mothers' and family pews, were pulled just prior to the procession and after the mothers were seated.

Upon the chiming of the hour, the bride entered to the traditional "Bridal Chorus" by Wagner. Escorted to the altar by her stepfather, the bride wore a formal gown of white silk organza over peau de soie fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline outlined with scalloped Chantilly lace beaded with pearls. The bodice was overlaid with French Chantilly lace with beaded lace at the waistline. An organza Dior bow was featured at the center back. Lace was used in the sheer bishop sleeves which featured scalloped lace at the cuffs. The modified A-line skirt was enhanced by a deep ruffled flounce bordered with lace that extended into an attached cathedral train. Six tiers of lace-trimmed flounces extended up the back of the skirt to the waistline. The bride carried a petite Victorian cascade bouquet of pink sensation roses, miniature pink carnations, daisies and gypsophila.

Attending as matron of honor was Mrs. Margaret Williams Barwick of Pink Hill. Bridesmaids were Tiffany Thomas and Belinda Miller, both of Beaulville; Pam Hunter of Beaulville, college roommate of the bride; Elizabeth Murphy of Albertson, cousin of the bride; Debra Outlaw of Albertson; and Dianne Holmes of Greensboro. Their nosegays and hairpieces were identical to those of the matron of honor. Miss Jody Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Tucker of Dudley, was the flowergirl. She wore a formal-length gown identical to the bridesmaids'. She wore a crown of babies'-breath and carried a small wicker handbasket filled with mixed summer flowers.

The groom, wearing a black tuxedo with a white rose boutonniere, chose his father as best man. Ushers were James Michael Aldridge of Pink Hill, brother of the bride; Ross Houston, of Beaulville, brother of the groom; Jack Conrad of Winston-Salem, Tom Davis of Erwin, and John Gatton of Jacksonville, Fla., former college roommate of the groom; and Brian Smith of Chiquapien. They wore black tuxedos with pink rose boutonnieres.

Mrs. Robert Ray Thomas of Beaulville presided at the register in the vestibule of the church. Mrs. Brian Smith of Chiquapien passed out wedding programs. The wedding was directed by Mrs. Richard Williams of Beaulville.

Reception

Immediately following the Houston-Aldridge ceremony, parents of the bride entertained the wedding party and guests at a reception in the church education building. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Dovel Outlaw of Albertson. Miss Kim Smith of Pink Hill presided at the register. At the entrance, a portrait of the bride was displayed. The bride's bouquet was placed by the portrait. Also displayed were childhood pictures of the bride and groom. The reception table was covered with a white lace cloth overlay in a pink liner complimented with a five-light silver candelabra centered with an elegant oval arrangement of pastel summer flowers, making for a festive occasion. Fresh flower arrangements and greenery were used on the mantel and throughout the fellowship hall. Upon arrival at the reception, the bride and groom cut the traditional first slice of the five-tiered wedding cake which was decorated with pink rosettes and separated by white posts and topped with summer flowers. The cake was made by Mrs. Wilton Smith and was placed on a round table with a pink chiffon-draped cloth made and designed by Mrs. Woodrow Jackson of Pink Hill. Bouquets of the bridesmaids framed the cake in summer colors. Serving the cake was Mrs. Ellis Tucker, aunt of the bride. At one end of the table, pouring punch from a silver punch-bowl, was Mrs. Bennett Kennedy, aunt of the groom. Other tasty delights served were ham biscuits, cheese straws, open-faced sandwiches, swedish meatballs, nuts, mints and fruits served in watermelon baskets. Guests were entertained with piano music by Mrs. Ben Rogers of Pink Hill. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Tucker of Kenansville. Satin ribbon roses filled with rice were passed out to the guests by Miss Tisha Kennedy of Wilmington, cousin of the groom; Dail Eason of Kenansville, cousin of the bride; and Miss Trina Tripp of Beaulville, cousin of the groom.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Houston changed into a white linen suit with matching accessories. She recently graduated "magna cum laude" from East Carolina University with a Bachelor of Science in business administration. The groom is a 1980 graduate of East Carolina University with a Bachelor of Science in business administration. He is vice president of Delmar Garment, Inc. of Jacksonville.

Following a wedding trip to Hilton Head, S.C., the couple will reside in Beaulville.
