

Smith - Jones United In Marriage

Coleen Kay Smith of Wilson and Thomas Bennett Jones of Greenville were united in marriage at 3 p.m. Saturday, June 5 in the Deep Run First Baptist Church. The Rev. Jimmy Williams and the Rev. Larry Hutchins officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Braswell Smith of Deep Run.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jefferson Jones.

The bride wore a formal white gown of sheerganza and venise lace. The gown was fashioned with a modified Queen Anne neckline accented with scalloped venise lace, a miniature ruffle, and sheer bishop sleeves that closed with wide lace cuffs.

The soft flowing A-line skirt bordered with a deep flounce flowed into an attached chapel train. The bride's headpiece consisted of a halo of white silk flowers that flowed into a three-quarter length veil.

She carried a bouquet of silk flowers made up of pink sweetheart roses, yellow daisies, miniature carnations, blue and white baby's breath and Queen Anne lace.

Attendants
Mrs. Neil Sutton of Kinston, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jo Alice Crawford of Elm City, and Mrs. Susan Gentry of Mount Airy. Miss Amanda Jones of Wilson was the junior bridesmaid.

The groom chose his brother, Jeff Jones of Wilson, to serve as best man. Ushers were Phil Lamm of Wilson; Dr. John Smith of Clinton, brother of the bride; and Carl Brown of Greenville.

Miss Marie Williams of Garner, cousin of the bride, was the organist, and Mrs. Gilda Cauley of Wilson was the vocalist. Mrs. Carol Hutchins of Deep Run directed the wedding, and Mrs. Becky Lee of Raleigh presided at the register.

The bride is a graduate of Meredith College. She is presently employed as an assistant cashier with Branch Banking and Trust Company in Wilson.

The groom attended North Carolina State University and the College of the Albemarle. He is presently employed as an assistant vice-president with Branch Banking and Trust Company in Greenville.

After a wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga., the couple will reside in Greenville.
