

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED - Mr. and Mrs. H.L. (Steve) Butler of Atkinson announce the engagement of their daughter Sharon Kim of Wrightsville Beach to William Clark Helton, also of Wrightsville Beach. Clark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Helton of Kenansville. A September 25th wedding is planned.

ENGAGED - Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick Kiser of Mendham, N.J., announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Ellen Marie, to Bryan Long Lewis, son of Capt. Herbert T. Lewis CHC, USN, and Mrs. Lewis of Virginia Beach, Va. The wedding is planned for September 11. Chaplain Lewis, the groom's father, is a former minister of Faison Presbyterian Church. Miss Kiser is a graduate of Gordon College, Wenham, Mass., where Bryan will be graduated in November.

Kenansville News

Mrs. H.E. Sanders and daughter, Mrs. Lois Hawes of Wilmington, visited Mrs. Ben Williamson last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Stroud went to Camp Rainbow near Boone Friday and spent the night. On Saturday they brought back two campers who had spent the week there. They were Betsy Jackson and Christy Konegay, who were sponsored by Kenansville Chapter #215, OES. Mr. and Mrs.

Jimmy Jackson had taken the girls to camp the weekend before.

Mrs. Gordon Konegay visited the Jerry Paschals in Whiteville Tuesday.

Guests of Mrs. Louise W. Mitchell Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John Lowery and Wright and Beth and Tena Blackmon of Goldsboro; also Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carroll Wells of Clinton, Bob Wells Jr. and Lawrence of Roseboro.

Among those from here who attended the Retired School Personnel luncheon meeting in Rose Hill Wednesday were: Mesdames Lorena Vestal, Edna Earl Brinson, Mary B. Mullis, Cleora Hudson, Louise W. Mitchell, Sallie C. Ingram and Henrietta Grady.

Mesdames Mary Jessup, Ruth B. Wells, Sallie Ingram and Louise Mitchell shopped in Goldsboro Tuesday.

Lucy Mullis of Fincastle, Va. has been visiting her paternal grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Troy D. Mullis.

Mrs. Bertha Hollingsworth has been visiting the Rudy Navidas in Fayetteville.

Mrs. Ella Q. Smith has returned home after a visit with Jack Smith and family in Pleasant Garden.

Dr. Sallie Morrow and Nathan have returned to their home in Iowa after a visit here and at Atlantic Beach with her mother, Mrs. Alton Newton.

Bridal Shower

Brenda Boyette, bride-elect of August, was given a bridal shower on July 25th in the home of Mrs. R.D. Ezzell. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Joe Westbrook and Mrs. Earl Lemon. About 75 guests floated through the Ezzell home during the evening hours.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Hubert Phillips and introduced to the honoree and the groom-elect, Timothy D. Cates of Durham. Receiving with them were her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Boyette of Chinquapin, also his mother, Mrs. Peggy Cates and her son, Craig Cates of Durham, also his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mangum.

The bride-elect and the two mothers were all pinned with carnation corsages.

The refreshment table was centered with a floral arrangement of mums, carnations, snapdragons and babies'-breath. A color note of green and white with a touch of pink was emphasized. Mrs. Westbrook served cake squares iced in white and decorated with pink rosebuds from one end of the table and Mrs. Lemon served green lime punch from the opposite end. Other refreshments consisted of ham biscuits, nuts and mints. Others assisting were Pam and Karen Ezzell, Catherine Phillips and Anna Lemon. Goodbyes were said to Mrs. Ezzell.

Eastern Star

Kenansville Chapter #215, Order of the Eastern Star, welcomed Joyce Williams, district deputy grand matron, and Kermit Williams, district deputy grand patron of the 8th district of the Grand Chapter of North Carolina at its regular stated meeting July 27th. There were 44 Stars present, including 21 local members and 23 visiting Stars. Among those present were three from the Ingo Chapter, five from Newton Grove, three from Warsaw, three from Garland, five from Wallace, one from Roseboro, and three from Clinton.

Joyce brought greetings from the worthy grand matron, explained the Star point signs, and made timely remarks about "What Love Really Is."

Kermit brought greetings from the worthy grand patron and explained the special projects for home maintenance of the Masonic and Eastern Star home in Greensboro.

They were honored at a steak supper at The Country Squire preceding the regular meeting, at which time Sally Tyndall, worthy matron of the hostess chapter, welcomed all present and gave a love gift to Joyce, after which the worthy patron, J.B. Stroud presented a gift to Kermit and asked the blessing. They were both presented a corsage and boutonniere respectively from the chapter by Thelma Murphy.

BLIZZARD AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP AT UNC-G

Diane Blizzard of Beaulville has been awarded an Ingo Holt Grogan Scholarship for study at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro during the upcoming academic year. The scholarship is among 57 awards ranging from $225 to $2,000 in value which were approved by the scholarship committee at its spring meeting.

Miss Blizzard, a mathematics major at UNC-G, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Blizzard of Route 1, Beaulville. She has been a dean's list student at the university since entering and she served as a university marshal during the 90th commencement in May of this year. She is a graduate of East Duplin High School.

The Ingo Holt Grogan Scholarship is presented annually to an in-state student who is majoring in mathematics.
