JSTC Plans Hike In Fees

Student activity fees will be increased this fall at James Sprunt Technical College in Kenansville to meet student demand for additional activities. The increases, unanimously approved by the board of trustees last Thursday night, are expected to bring in $2,000 and increase activities funds to $13,000 a year, according to Cynthia Dail, activities director.

Starting in the fall quarter, the fee for full-time students will be $27 for the full academic year, an increase of $7. Part-time students taking up to 6 quarter hours of credit will pay $4, an increase of $1 or $2 per quarter. Students taking seven to 11 quarter hours will pay $6 per quarter, up $1. Part-time students taking 12 or more quarter hours will pay $8 per quarter, up $2. Summer quarter students will pay $4. In other business, the board let a $49,000 contract to Jackson Builders of Goldsboro for a metal prefabricated storage building. The bid was the lowest among five received by the board.

Jimmy Strickland was re-elected chairman of the board and Willard Hoffer vice chairman for the next year. Both have held their offices since 1965. Strickland owns Farmers Hardware Co. in Warsaw and Hoffer is a retired heavy equipment firm owner.

Perry Alonzo Sharpe, 20, was sworn in as Student Government Association president. As student president, he is a member of the board without voting authority.

Sharpe is enrolled in the advanced auto mechanics course at JSTC and has completed the heavy duty diesel motor course.

He was born in New Hanover County and grew up in Riegelwood. He is one of seven children.

The board designated several department heads' staff members as vice presidents, at no pay increase. Among these are: Alfred Wells, student affairs; Dr. Gene Ballard, academic affairs; and Robert A. Lee, fiscal affairs.

Donna Thigpen was designated vice president in charge of administrative affairs. She was assigned additional duties and received a pay increase of $1,100 as a result. She will take over the media duties formerly carried out by Bill Warren, who resigned because of ill health.

Nelson Best will receive a pay increase of $1,000 a year for taking over the photographic duties formerly performed by Warren.

Croom Family Reunion

The Croom family will assemble for its 52nd annual reunion this year at the Croom Meeting House on Sunday, Aug. 15. Since 1930 the Crooms have been meeting to honor the memory of their descendants, have fellowship and enjoy a picnic lunch together. The morning program will begin at 11 a.m. The oldest and youngest attending and those traveling the greatest distance will be recognized. A brief business session concludes the program.

This year's program consists of character impersonations of personalities from bygone years. Also, the 52 years of the family reunions will be reviewed.

The Croom Meeting House was built by Lott Croom in 1823. It is owned by the Croom family and contains its original furnishings. It is located on Highway 55, about eight miles west of Kinston at Sandy Bottom.

Those attending are asked to bring a picnic or covered dish dinner. The picnic will be spread at 12:30 p.m.

Many through the years have worked vigorously to unveil their family history. The Croom family has been traced back to Ireland as outlined in the book, "The Croom Family" by Mrs. Doris C. Outlaw, who plans to attend this year's reunion. Copies will be available.

There are many branches of the Croom family and many families have intermarried over the years making most any name familiar at the gathering. Norris Croom, publicity chairman, states the reunion this year is expected to be a good one and encourages all descendants and friends to attend.

Dail Reunion

The annual Dail reunion will be held Sunday, August 8, beginning at noon at the Oakridge Community Building.

Bring a picnic basket of food with tea, said Mrs. Cyrus Rhodes, treasurer.
