

Blizzard-Fisher Vows Spoken

Lula Ann Blizzard and Harry John Fisher, both of Greenville, were united in marriage at 3 p.m. Sunday, July 25 in the First Baptist Church of Deep Run. The Rev. Larry Hutchins of Deep Run officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and was escorted to the altar by her father. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blizzard of Deep Run Rt. 1.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher of Jacksonville, Fla.

The bride wore a formal white gown of silk organza over peau de soie and silk venise lace. The gown was designed with a V-neckline accented with a berthia effect overlay accented with sculptured silk venise lace forming the same V-effect in the back to the waistline.

Silk venise lace encircled the waistline and was accented with a self-fabric rose. The soft flowing skirt featured a peplum effect at the back waistline which flowed to the hemline, bordered the gown and flowed into an attached chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion bordered in lace was attached to a matching lace capulet etched with pearls and iridescence.

Attendants

Mrs. Susan Powell of Deep Run, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Ms. Valerie Taylor of Deep Run, cousin of the bride, and Ms. Lynn Carraway and Ms. Kelly Blizzard, both of Kinston, cousins of the bride.

The groom chose Billy Szostak of Greensboro to serve as his best man. Ushers were Michael Cable of Greenville, and Mac Blizzard and Ronald Powell, both of Deep Run.

Nuptial music was presented by Ms. Sue Rogers of Pink Hill, organist, and Ben Rogers of Pink Hill, vocalist. Ms. Lib Williams of Cary directed the wedding, and Ms. Sally Edgerton of Wallace presided at the register.

The bride is a 1977 graduate of Duke University and is presently employed with East Carolina School of Medicine.

The groom is presently employed by the Greenville Fire and Rescue Department.

After a wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains, the couple will reside at 213-D River Bluff Road, Greenville.
