Garden Party

On Saturday afternoon, Aug. 14, 1982, Mesdames Hortense T. Hasty, Jean T. Thompson and Shirley T. Costin, entertained at a garden party honoring their mother, Mrs. Sally Eva Tyndall on her 75th birthday.

Over 100 guests called to wish the honoree many happy returns of the day. As they arrived they were greeted by Jean's husband, Crenshaw and Mrs. Tyndall, who directed them to the refreshment table attractively arranged on the patio. Here they were served cake from one end of the table by Tyndall Thompson and punch from the opposite end by Sally Hays Thompson. Cheese wafers and salted nuts were also served. Others assisting in the serving were Lee Ann Costin and Birtainy and Corrie Hasty. A color note of yellow and white with a touch of green was used in decorations and refreshments.

Among the out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Tyndall of Kinston, Mrs. Pearl Sutton of Faison, Mrs. Edwina Konegay of Calypso, Mr. and Mrs. Liston Bryant of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dilly of Dudley, and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Sasser and Charles Sasser of Morganton.

Presbyterian Women

Circle #1 of the Women of Grove Presbyterian Church met Monday morning, Aug. 9 in the fellowship hall of the church for its regular monthly meeting and Bible study. Miss Annie Catherine Rhodes called the meeting to order and presided. The opening prayer was made by the Rev. David Dickey, after which Miss Rhodes moderated the Bible study with all present taking part. After the closing prayer by Mrs. Ralph Barwick, the group went to The General Store for an early lunch together. Here they were joined by the Rev. Anne Dickey and their baby girl, Heather Marie. There were eight present.

Circle #2 met Monday night with Mrs. J.J. Wells. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Jack Sitterson and Mrs. Lloyd Stevens moderated the Bible study. The topic was "Stewardship and Institutions." For refreshments, Mrs. Wells, assisted by Mrs. Stevens, served blueberry salad and ritz crackers to the eight present.
