A DINNER WINNER

Ribbons of pork breakfast strips interlaced with cooked bright green broccoli flowerets and cubes of sunny carrots on skewers make a quick and easy dinner. For extra flavor, the meat and vegetables are brushed with French dressing before broiling.

Pork breakfast strips are easy to thread onto skewers or wrap around water chestnuts, olives or gherkins because they are so meaty. There is little shrinkage and they do not curl during cooking so are ideal for kebobs and appetizers.

Hashed brown potatoes, the frozen ones for convenience, avocado and grapefruit salad, muffins and dessert, if you wish, will complete your meal. It is colorful, nutritious and so easy to prepare.

Sizzlin' Vegetable Kebobs

For each kebab, pan fry or broil 2 strips Sizzlean on one side 3 to 4 minutes. Drain on paper towels.

Broccoli flowerets
Carrots, cut into 3/4 inch pieces
French dressing

Cook broccoli and carrots in boiling, salted water until tender crisp. Drain. On skewers, thread Sizzlean alternating with broccoli and carrots. Place cooked side of Sizzlean against vegetables. Brush meat and vegetables with French dressing. Broil 3 to 4 minutes turning occasionally for even cooking.
