

A DUPLIN COUNTY SHOWCASE - When new performers are presented to audiences for the first time, the term "showcasing" is used. In Duplin County school children and fairgoers will have an opportunity to showcase new talent on October 4 when Phil and Gaye Johnson appear with the Green Grass Cloggers. At B.F. Grady Elementary School and at Kenansville Elementary school the Johnsons will pick, strum and sing. They offer a unique blend of traditional folk, country and bluegrass music as well as a generous portion of swing, ragtime and blues. Fairgoers can hear the Johnsons along with the Green Grass Cloggers at 7 p.m. Oct. 4 in the Kenansville Old School auditorium. Admission is free.

Duplin Pageant Association Makes Plan For Junior Miss And Little Miss Duplin

Little Miss
The Little Miss Duplin County Pageant is scheduled for Nov. 27. The pageant is available to girls age seven to ten years of age as of pageant date, that lie in Duplin County. The competition will include private judges interview, a two-minute talent presentation and evening gown competition. There is a $50 entry fee and the first 25 girls who enter will be accepted. Entry forms are available at the county elementary schools and instructions for returning the forms and other details are enclosed in a letter with the forms.

The chairman and choreographer for this year's pageant is Jane Phillips of Wallace. The winner of "Little Miss Duplin County 1983" will receive a large cash award, trophy and crown, and many nice gifts and the opportunity to represent Duplin County in many capacities for a year. The reigning queen is Amy Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Williams of Beulaville. Amy has had a very fulfilling and rewarding year, making many appearances as "Little Miss Duplin County."

The Association elected officers for this year are Janet Williams of Beulaville, president; Shelia McKay of Kenansville, vice-president; and Vickie Rabon of Warsaw, secretary-treasurer.

Junior Miss
The Duplin County Junior Miss program is part of a nationwide program to honor and reward high-school senior girls for achievement in scholastics, creative talents, self development and community betterment. Some $2 million dollars in college scholarships and other awards will be offered at local, state and national levels this year.

Junior Miss is not a beauty pageant. Junior Miss seeks the representative, total girl, the wholesome, intelligent individual. The Duplin County Junior Miss program is available to any high school senior girl who is a resident of Duplin County. Entry forms are available

JSTC Graduation Exercises Scheduled

The twentieth commencement exercises of James Sprunt Technical College are scheduled to be held Sunday, Sept. 26 at 5:30 p.m. in the William Rand Kenan, Jr. Memorial Amphitheatre in Kenansville. One hundred twenty-five graduates will receive two-year associate degrees, one-year diplomas or one-year certificates in 21 curriculum programs.

In addition to these graduates, approximately 100 persons have successfully completed the GED test, qualifying them to receive the N.C. high school equivalency certificate.

In the event of inclement weather, graduation exercises will be moved to Kenan

Memorial Auditorium.

The speaker will be Dr. Charles Fisher Carroll. Dr. Carroll has a long and distinguished career as an educator in North Carolina. Born in Warsaw and educated in its public schools, he received his Master of Education degree from Duke University in 1930. He held positions as teacher, principal and superintendent in the public school system until his election as state superintendent of public instruction for North Carolina in 1957, a position he held until his retirement in 1968.

In recent years, Dr. Carroll has been serving as honorary member of the board of trustees of Peace College, member of the board of trustees of High Point College, and member of the board of higher education and campus ministries of the North Carolina United Methodist Conference.

Preceding the graduation exercises, a reception honoring all JSTC alumni will be given in the student lounge of the McGowan Building on the campus. Sponsored by the Alumni Association, the reception is being given to honor all those who have graduated from JSTC since its beginning in 1962. All alumni are cordially invited to attend between 3:30 and 4:30 and the graduation exercises at 5:30 in the Amphitheatre.

The autograph of Julius Caesar is reputedly worth $2 million.
