

Sumner-Cashwell United In Marriage

Jennifer Rhodes Cashwell of Beulaville became the bride of James Norwood Sumner of Clinton in a four-o'clock afternoon ceremony on Saturday, Sept. 4 in the Hallsville Presbyterian Church, Beulaville.

The Rev. Matt Highfill, minister, officiated at the double ring service. Wedding musicians were pianist Ruth Kins of Faison, the groom's aunt, and singer Faye Gay of Clinton.

The bride is the daughter of Geraldine N. Rhodes of Beulaville and the late Murphy Rhodes. A graduate of East Duplin High School in 1970, she is employed with Reeves Brothers in Kenansville in the shipping department.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norwood W. Sumner of Clinton, graduated from Union High School in 1970 and attended Chowan College. He is employed with his father in a hog operation.

The bride wore a formal gown of candlelight Chantilly lace over peau de soie. The gown featured an all-lace bodice, round neckline and a short lace jacket fastened at the neck with a pearl button. An A-line skirt with ruffle completed the styling of the gown. For her headwear, she wore an organza-covered hat with organza streamers. Her flowers were a bouquet of silk candlelight roses accented with blue.

Stephanie Lynn Cashwell was her mother's maid of honor. She wore a long blue gown with a ruffle at the neck and at the hemline, and a big back bow. Her flowers were silk candlelight roses accented with blue. She wore babies'-breath in her hair.

Groomsmen were Jamie N. Sumner and Jeffrey T. Sumner of Warsaw, the groom's sons. Ushers were Gary Allen Rhodes of Beulaville, the bride's brother, and Edward Sumner of Clinton, the groom's brother.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony.

The couple will live at Route 4, Clinton.

After-Rehearsal Party

An after-rehearsal party was held at the home of the groom's parents for members of the wedding party and their families.

Smith-Jarman Pledge Vows

Annette Kaye Jarman of Trenton and Timothy Lynn Smith of Pink Hill were united in marriage at six-thirty Friday, September 17, in Cypress Creek United Methodist Church. The Rev. E.C. McCall officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and was escorted to the altar by her brother, Barnette Jarman. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Jarman of Trenton, Route 2.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis C. Smith of Pink Hill, Route 2. The bride wore a white formal gown of sheerganza and Alencon lace designed with an empire waist accented with motifs of lace and see-through neckline and ruffle bordered collar. Full bishop sleeves of sheerganza were bordered with wide lace cuffs and ruffled edges. A full circular skirt featured scattered floral lace motifs and was bordered with a wide ruffle flounce that flowed into a chapel-length train. The bride's headpiece was a small roll-brimmed lace-covered hat with a back nylon puff and waltz length streamers of nylon illusion. She carried a nosegay of white and blue mixed daisies, roses, carnations and babies'-breath.

Miss Lisa Jarman of Trenton, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Cindy Smith of Pink Hill, sister of the groom; Misses Cathy and Claudette Jarman of Trenton, sisters of the bride; Miss Sissie King of Kinston; and the flowergirl was Miss Erica Smith of Pink Hill.

The groom chose his father to serve as best man. Ushers were Anthony Smith, brother of the groom; Terry Futrell, brother-in-law of the groom; and Dexter Williamson, cousin of the groom, all of Pink Hill; Forrest King of Kinston; and Chris Grady of Pink Hill, cousin of the groom, served as ringbearer.

Wedding music was presented by Ms. Emily Andrews and Ms. Anette Hoffman, organists, and Durwood and Lorelei O'Quinn, vocalists.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Anna Craft of Trenton. Ms. Debbie Williams, sister of the bride, presided at the register. The bride is a 1979 graduate of Jones Senior High School and a 1981 graduate of Lenoir Community College. She is secretary for Kaye Enterprises, Inc. of Kinston.

The groom is a 1978 graduate of East Duplin High School and is presently farming.

After a wedding trip to Busch Gardens, Va., the couple will reside at Pink Hill Route 2.

Hoffman, organists, and Durwood and Lorelei O'Quinn, vocalists.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Anna Craft of Trenton. Ms. Debbie Williams, sister of the bride, presided at the register.

The bride is a 1979 graduate of Jones Senior High School and a 1981 graduate of Lenoir Community College. She is secretary for Kaye Enterprises, Inc. of Kinston.

The groom is a 1978 graduate of East Duplin High School and is presently farming.

After a wedding trip to Busch Gardens, Va., the couple will reside at Pink Hill Route 2.

Receptions

A reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Wilton Smith served cake and Mrs. Ronald Davenport served punch. Also assisting were Ms. Bertha Kay Raynor and Ms. Sonya Blizzard. Mrs. Terry Futrell, sister of the groom, presided at the register. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Ellis King.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents following the rehearsal.

On June 26, the couple was honored with an engagement party at the home of the groom's parents given by Mr. and Mrs. Terry Futrell. Ms. Cindy Smith, along with the assistance of their parents.

On July 9, the couple was honored with a miscellaneous shower at Smith's Presbyterian Church. Hostesses were Becky Davenport and Bertha Kay Raynor of Kinston. Hilda Grace Smith, Wilma Gray Williamson, Joyce Smith, Lucille Smith, Debra Duff and Sheila Futrell of Pink Hill.

On August 14, the bride was honored with a lingerie shower hosted by Cindy Smith, Lisa Jarman and Debbie Williams.

On Sept. 13, the couple was honored with a supper at the Albertson Recreation Center. Hostesses were John and Becky Smith.

Kenansville News

Presbyterian Women

Miss Annie Catherine Rhodes was hostess for Circle #1 of the Women of Grove Church when it met Monday afternoon. Miss Rhodes also presided and conducted the opening devotional. The Bible study on stewardship and politics was moderated by Mrs. Amos Chestnutt with all present taking part. A social hour followed at which time the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J.B. Stroud, served pound cake, cheese and iced drinks.

Circle #2 met that night with Mrs. W.E. Craft, who also moderated the Bible study. The opening prayer was made by Mrs. Jack Sitterson, who presided. A social hour followed the benediction, during which time Mrs. Craft served a sweet course to the nine ladies present.

Baptist Circles

The Cora Stokes Circle of the local Baptist Church met Monday afternoon with Mrs. David English. Mrs. O.W. Hudson conducted the opening devotional and presided. The program and closing prayer were in charge of Mrs. George Penney. For refreshments, Mrs. English served cake and iced tea.

The Ella Cooper Circle met that night with Mrs. Doug Judge, with Mrs. John T. Mathis as co-hostess. Mrs. Mathis gave the Call to Prayer and presented the program, a film strip on "A Day in the Life of Bonnie Gonzales." The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Charles Yelverton. The hostesses served pineapple cake with iced drinks after the closing prayer to the ten present.

The afternoon circle of the Kenansville United Methodist Women met Monday with Mrs. W.M. Ingram, who also presented the program on "Genele Hearts." Mrs. Viola W. Quinn presided and made the opening prayer. The closing prayer was made by Mrs. H.D. Taylor. For refreshments, Mrs. Ingram served lemonade and cookies. She was assisted by Mrs. Walter Smith. There were eight ladies present.

The evening circle met with Mrs. Stuart Hall and Mrs. Dixon Hall presented an interesting program on "Love." After a short business session, Mrs. Hall served chocolate pie and coffee to the five present.

The regular bi-monthly meeting of Kenansville Chapter #215, O.E.S. was held on Tuesday night with Sally B. Tyndall, worthy matron, and J.B. Stroud, worthy patron, in their respective stations. After the ritualistic opening and business session, they chose this night to honor all past matrons and patrons and sideliners present with a special program. A social hour followed the closing ceremony and refreshments were served, consisting of punch, cookies, cheese wafers, toasted pecans and other finger food to the 14 present.

After lunch, Richard Harrell, hospital administrator, recognized with appreciation the fine work of the Auxiliary during the past year and gave badges to Fran Beyer, Eleanor Sawyer, Rachel Blanchard, Anne Outlaw, Joan Howard and Rosetta Pearsall. Each of them had completed at least 100 volunteer hours of work for the hospital.

To the following, who had at least 100 hours and had received a badge the previous year, Harrell gave a star: Ruth Jones, Louise Mitchell, Sally Ingram, Mary Mullis and Virginia Penny.

For 200 hours of work he gave two stars to Mesdames Gloria Ketelsleger, Margaret Oakley, Ruth Quinn, Thelma King, Martha Swann, Sally Tyndall and Inez Surratt.

Carolyn Hall received three stars for 300 hours of service and Doris English four stars for 400 hours of work.

Twenty members and three visitors were present.

The Tidewater Bloodmobile made another visit to Duplin County last week. It was in Beulaville on Monday and in Kenansville at the fire station on Wednesday.

Forty-five donated and the following workers assisted Mike Outlaw and Mrs. N.B. Boney: Louise W. Mitchell, Virginia Holland, Victoria Stephens, Sallie Ingram and Virginia Penney.

Mrs. N.B. Boney was hostess for the Kenansville Contract Klub Thursday night with Mesdames Jack Sitterson and Larry Warrington substituting for two absent members. Mrs. Stuart Hall won the high score prize for members and Mrs. Warrington for the visitors. Between progressions, Mrs. Boney, assisted by Mrs. George Penney, served lemon pie, cheese doodles and coffee.

The Duplin General Hospital Auxiliary held their monthly meeting followed by a luncheon at the General Store in Kenansville last Wednesday. The president, Mrs. Doris English, called the meeting to order. The opening devotional was led by Mrs. Mary B. Mullis.

After the report of the treasurer, Mrs. Martha Swann, several other matters were attended. The nomination committee report was submitted and the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: President, Doris English; Vice-president, Margaret Oakley; secretary, Thelma Taylor; and Treasurer, Martha Swann.

Homemakers Club

Mrs. Clarence Murphy was hostess for the South Kenansville Extension Homemakers when it met Friday afternoon. Mrs. Milton Rice presided. The opening song was led by Mrs. Louise W. Matchell, after which Mrs. Murphy conducted the Devotional.

Mrs. Mae H. Spicer, extension agent, presented the program on "Update and Planning Ahead." She also discussed the Duplin County Agribusiness Fair and urged the members cooperation.

Officers and committee chairmen were reminded to get their annual reports in by Sept. 30. Mrs. John F. Hamilton was welcomed as a new member. After closing with the club collect, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J.B. Stroud, served lemonade, cake and cheeses to the nine present.

Bloodmobile

The Tidewater Bloodmobile made another visit to Duplin County last week. It was in Beulaville on Monday and in Kenansville at the fire station on Wednesday.

Forty-five donated and the following workers assisted Mike Outlaw and Mrs. N.B. Boney: Louise W. Mitchell, Virginia Holland, Victoria Stephens, Sallie Ingram and Virginia Penney.

Contract Klub

Mrs. N.B. Boney was hostess for the Kenansville Contract Klub Thursday night with Mesdames Jack Sitterson and Larry Warrington substituting for two absent members. Mrs. Stuart Hall won the high score prize for members and Mrs. Warrington for the visitors. Between progressions, Mrs. Boney, assisted by Mrs. George Penney, served lemon pie, cheese doodles and coffee.

Hospital Auxiliary Luncheon Meeting

The Duplin General Hospital Auxiliary held their monthly meeting followed by a luncheon at the General Store in Kenansville last Wednesday. The president, Mrs. Doris English, called the meeting to order. The opening devotional was led by Mrs. Mary B. Mullis.

After the report of the treasurer, Mrs. Martha Swann, several other matters were attended. The nomination committee report was submitted and the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: President, Doris English; Vice-president, Margaret Oakley; secretary, Thelma Taylor; and Treasurer, Martha Swann.

After lunch, Richard Harrell, hospital administrator, recognized with appreciation the fine work of the Auxiliary during the past year and gave badges to Fran Beyer, Eleanor Sawyer, Rachel Blanchard, Anne Outlaw, Joan Howard and Rosetta Pearsall. Each of them had completed at least 100 volunteer hours of work for the hospital.

To the following, who had at least 100 hours and had received a badge the previous year, Harrell gave a star: Ruth Jones, Louise Mitchell, Sally Ingram, Mary Mullis and Virginia Penny.

For 200 hours of work he gave two stars to Mesdames Gloria Ketelsleger, Margaret Oakley, Ruth Quinn, Thelma King, Martha Swann, Sally Tyndall and Inez Surratt.

Carolyn Hall received three stars for 300 hours of service and Doris English four stars for 400 hours of work.

Twenty members and three visitors were present.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Ingram of Washington, D.C. spent the weekend here with their mothers, Mrs. W.M. Ingram and Mrs. Andrew Patterson.

Rev. and Mrs. Troy D. Mullis spent several days recently in Millboro, Va. They were joined by their three children and their families.

Pat Brinson attended a meeting in Greenville Wednesday. She was accompanied by Margaret Oakley.

Mrs. N.B. Boney attended the Battle of Rockfish DAR meeting and luncheon in Rose Hill Tuesday.

Col. (Ret.) and Mrs. S.B. McGowan of Columbia, S.C. spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. E.S. McGowan. They attended a family reunion in LaCross, Va. on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Pittman and daughter Tammy of Jacksonville spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Viola W. Quinn.

Mrs. Faison W. McGowan spent a couple of days last week with her sister, Mrs. Ada McMillan in Fayetteville.

KENANSVILLE UNITED METHODIST BAZAAR

October 29

The doors will open promptly at 10 a.m. on Oct. 29th for the annual bazaar staged by the members of the Kenansville United Methodist Church.

The steering committee, composed of Mrs. Hazel Scott, Mrs. Eloise Ryder and Mrs. Earl Hardy Sr., has made plans that will include the interest of all ages.

The soup and sandwich luncheon, which is always a hit with the working folks in town, will again be an outstanding part of the bazaar.

SARECTA UNITED METHODIST BAZAAR AND BARBECUE

The Sarecta United Methodist Church of Kenansville will be holding their pork and chicken barbecue as well as a bazaar on Saturday, Sept. 25th at the church. Plates will be $3, including dessert. Serving begins at 4 p.m. and will continue until 7 o'clock.

American Association Of University Women To Meet

The Duplin County branch of the American Association of University Women will hold its first meeting of the 1982-83 program year on Thursday, the 30th of September at 6:30 p.m. at a dutch treat supper at the Graham House Inn.

AAUW is a membership of women who completed their degree work at a four-year institution of higher education and continue their involvement and awareness by means of meetings of varied types and their contacts with others of local and national reputation.

The September meeting will be "The Future of AAUW" which concerns former members as well as prospective members.

Ms. Karen Dawes, vice-chairman for programs, invites women of the county to attend the meeting of 16 Oct. at which time Rep. Lura Tally of Fayetteville will speak of the "Importance and Role of Women in Politics." This meeting will begin at 11 a.m. at the Graham House Inn with a dutch lunch following.

Mrs. Margaret Holland is president of the local branch and Mrs. Mary Ireland of Kenansville is the secretary-treasurer.

Why Are You "WEIGHTING"?

NO SHOTS - NO DRUGS - NO CONTRACTS
NO PREPACKAGED FOODS

While you have "weighted" R. Norris has lost 43.75 lbs. and others in the Warsaw area are losing 3-5 lbs. a week.

The Diet Connection

109 E. College St., Clark Shopping Center, Warsaw 293-7320. Mon., Tues., Thurs., Fri. 10:00 - 5:00 or by appt.

106 Raleigh Rd., Rivenbark Shopping Center (Behind Do-Right) Durdly Closed Wed., Sat. & Sun.

CALL NOW FOR A FREE CONSULTATION!

Take Advantage Of Our

September Special

5 Weeks Pre-Paid 1 Week Free

Now Open

LAURA'S PLAY AND LEARN

1 A

2 B

3 C

PLAY AND LEARN

A Learning Place For Children

Preferred Ages 18 Mos. - 4Yrs.

Open 7:30-5:30

- Certified Teacher
- Planned Daily Program
- Fenced Playground • State licensed
- Hot Balanced Meals Nutritious Snacks

Will Accept By Hour Or Day

Special Curriculum Each Morning

108 W. COLLEGE ST., WARSAW

For more information call Laura S. Jones

call: 293-4366 days
293-7546 nights

Buddy's Jewelry

Is Celebrating
The Opening Of
Their New Store
In Dunn, NC

Gold Sale

30% off Entire Stock Of

14K Gold Chains & Charms

14K 7mm Bead $1.89

14K Floating Hearts 99¢

14K Serpentine Bracelet $7.95

14K 16" Serpentine Chain $9.95

PLUS CLOSEOUT SPECIALS
Up To 50% off
Other Fine Jewelry Items & Watches

STUDENTS: Don't forget to come in and play our Price Is Right game.

Buddy's Jewelry

N. Center St.-Mt. Olive 658-3258