

Mrs. Sharon Albertson Dail

Mrs. Elaine Albertson Cruse

Sisters Share Double Wedding Ceremony

Sharon Ann Albertson and Joseph Dail, both of Chinquapin, and Beverly Elaine Albertson of Chinquapin and Tony Lyn Cruse of Albertson were united in marriage on Saturday, June 2, at three o'clock in the afternoon at Sharon Baptist Church in Chinquapin. Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Phillip R. Denton, former pastor of the brides.

The brides are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge D. Albertson of Chinquapin. Parents of the grooms are Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Dail of Chinquapin and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cruse of Albertson.

The church was decorated with an arrangement of pink and white chrysanthemums, carnations and roses. There were green ferns flanking the altar, and on either side were two spiral candelabra holding burning tapers. After the lighting of the Trinity candles, the bridal couples knelt at the kneeling benches for the benediction.

Preceding the nuptials, a program of music was rendered by John W. Boyette Jr. of Warsaw. Mrs. Lori B. Maready of Rose Hill, soloist, sang "Looking Through the Eyes of Love" and "Let It Be Me." For the benediction she sang "The Wedding Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used for the ceremony.

The brides were escorted to the altar by their father and given in marriage by their parents.

Sharon wore a formal-length gown of white organza and Nottingham lace. The gown featured a basque bodice, high neckline and Victorian sleeves. Ruffled lace accented the yoke, sleeves and waist. The full A-line skirt fell into a deep ruffled hemline with attached chapel train. She wore a matching lace-trimmed bridal hat with bridal illusion.

Elaine wore a formal-length gown of white Rachelle lace with a U-shaped neckline accented with a lace ruffle and satin ribbon. The gown featured a fitted bodice and Queen Anne sleeves. The full skirt was trimmed in rows of lace ruffles and satin ribbons flowing to a semi-cathedral train. She wore a Victorian hat covered in matching lace and pearls with a bow and streamers of lace and satin ribbon.

The bridal bouquets were cascades of white silk roses and pink sweetheart roses interspersed with English ivy.

The maids of honor were Rhonda Albertson of Chapel Hill, sister of the brides, and Sheri Martin of Chinquapin, cousin of the brides. They were attired in formal gowns of suede rose chiffon fashioned with a fitted bodice and off-the-shoulder neckline enhanced with a deep ruffled effect. The empire waist accented the full A-line skirt that extended into a deep ruffled flounce. In their hair they wore sprigs of babies'-breath and carried five long-stemmed suede roses with matching streamers.

The bridesmaids were Barbara Mobley of Chinquapin, Lori Lynn Hatcher of Wilmington, cousin of the brides, and Allison Albertson of Fayetteville, also a cousin of the brides. Their gowns and flowers were identical to that of the honor attendants. They also wore babies'-breath in their hair.

Angela Batchelor of Chinquapin was the flower girl. Angela wore a formal gown like those of the other attendants. She wore flowers in her hair enhanced with babies'-breath and carried a white basket of mums, roses and carnations.

The grooms chose their fathers. Norwood Dail and Walter Cruse, to serve as bestmen. Ushers were Keith Dail of Chinquapin, brother of Joseph, Randy Cruse of Albertson, brother of Tony, and Bobby Maready of Rose Hill. The grooms were attired in white tuxedos and wore suede rose boutonnieres. All the other male attendants wore gray suits and suede rose boutonnieres. Bradley Kennedy of Chinquapin served as ringbearer. His attire was like that of the other male attendants and he carried a white satin pillow.

The mother of the brides wore a suede rose street-length dress featuring a cross-worked bodice and a sash with a flowered print.

The mother of Joseph wore a pink street-length dress of chiffon with a sheer overlay featuring a ruffled neckline. The mother of Tony wore a mint green street-length dress of chiffon with a sheer overlay and featuring puffed sleeves. All mothers wore white silk orchid corsages.

Mrs. J.W. Albertson of Chinquapin, paternal grandmother of the brides, wore a pink and gray street-length dress with matching jacket. Mrs. Cyrus W. Futrell of Chinquapin, maternal grandmother of the brides, wore a blue street-length dress. Mrs. Alton Mobley of Chinquapin, aunt of the brides, wore a blue street-length dress and was seated with the grandmothers of the brides.

Mrs. E.N. Riggs of Albertson, maternal grandmother of Tony, wore a melon street-length dress. Mrs. Fionnie Jenkins, paternal grandmother of Joseph, wore a pink street-length dress.

All the grandmothers and special guests wore a corsage of pink carnations and small daisies.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Terry Rivenbark and Mrs. Allen Earl Rivenbark, both of Wallace. Mrs. Jerry Hatcher and Mrs. Johnny Hatcher attended the register.

After a wedding trip to an undisclosed area, Sharon and Joey will reside at Route 1, Chinquapin, and Elaine and Tony will reside at Route 1, Albertson.

Reception

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the Denton Hall. The guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Hatcher. The brides' portraits were displayed on the bridal table which was draped with a white cloth and centered with a silk arrangement of pink mums, carnations and roses. Brass candlesticks holding pink candles were placed on either side.

The five-tiered wedding cake was trimmed with burgundy and pink roses and was topped with a bride and groom. After the first traditional slices were cut the bridal couples, the wedding cake was served by Mrs. Gurman Norris. Punch was poured by Mrs. James Riley. Sharon Norris and Mrs. O.B. Martin assisted in serving the guests wedding mints, cheeseball and crackers, roasted pecans and nuts and pickle chips. The goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hatcher.

Rehearsal Dinner

On June 1, the Dail-Albertson, Cruse-Albertson rehearsal party was given a catered dinner. The focal table was centered with an arrangement of pink mums, roses and carnations. The guests were served barbecued pork and chicken, slaw, potato salad, hushpuppies, tea and/or soft drinks and cake. The rehearsal was held afterwards.

Prenuptial Courtesies

On May 1, the brides were honored with a double miscellaneous shower at Sharon Baptist Church in Chinquapin. Upon arrival they were presented pink carnation with white daisies corsages. Refreshments included cake squares, nuts, cheese-ball and crackers, pickles, assorted vegetables with dip, and punch. Many useful gifts were received.

On April 28, Elaine, bride-elect, was honored with a miscellaneous shower at Albertson Community Building. She was presented a corsage of pink carnations and white daisies. Refreshments included cake squares, nuts, mints, potato chips and dip, pickles and punch. Many useful gifts were received.

On May 3, Elaine was honored with a miscellaneous shower at Kinston. She was presented a corsage of pink carnation. Refreshments included cake squares, nuts, mints, potato chips and dip, and punch. Many gifts were received.

On May 29, the brides were honored with a double lingerie shower given by their bridesmaids. The guests were served cake, potato chips and dip, chicken salad sandwiches, assorted chocolate candies and soft drinks. The brides enjoyed opening their gifts from the 24 guests attending.

On May 30, Sharon and Joey were honored with a dinner given by the NCNB employees at the Graham House Inn in Kenansville. The guests enjoyed a steak dinner including baked potatoes, salad, tea and coffee with apple tarts for dessert.

Beulaville News

Mrs. W.V. Oxley was at Duke Medical Center in Durham Thursday and underwent checks for a back problem with pinched vertebrae.

Susan O. Herring and Stephen and Mrs. Vallie Oxley were in Kenansville Thursday afternoon on business.

Mrs. W.V. Oxley Jr. and daughter Susan and Stephen spent Friday morning on business in Kenansville.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bratcher and Mrs. Ransom Mercer left Clinton Friday for Columbia, S.C. to attend the wedding and festivities of John Michael Bratcher and Jenny Butler who were to be married.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Kennedy of Wilmington visited Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Ray Bostic and Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, their parents, over the weekend. They attended the wedding of Bobby Miller and Gina Lanier Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. I.J. Sandlin have enjoyed having their two grandsons of Dudley, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sandlin of Dudley, for the week.

Randy Sandlin of Greensboro came home last week and spent a couple of days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I.J. Sandlin. He spent the weekend at Topsail and will be working in Atlanta, Ga. for the summer.

Charles Sanderson and his son, Terry, made a business trip to Jacksonville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Olen Maready spent the weekend in Norfolk, Va. with relatives.

Lisa Hinson spent Sunday at Topsail Beach.

Marlyn Mercer of Smithfield spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Otis Vere Miller. She is attending summer session at NCSU.

Pauline Hunter spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Barbee, in Richlands.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to Duplin General Hospital staff, doctors and nurses, as well as to our family and friends for their expressions through cards, flowers, food and words of sympathy. May God bless you.

The Family of
Bill Williamson

Truman Miller.

Alma Quinn Jones and daughter of Clover, S.C. visited her sister, Thelma Quinn Jones recently. They celebrated her birthday at the Hilma Mills home in Richlands. Douglas Mills barbecued a pig and on Sunday all the Quinn family and Alma's children honored her with a big birthday dinner. She returned to South Carolina after almost a week here.

Vera Henderson is in Lenoir Memorial Hospital in Kinston.

Rommie Mercer has returned from New Hanover Memorial Hospital in Wilmington.

Mrs. Carlton Craft was admitted to Lenoir Memorial Hospital Thursday to undergo surgery. Mary Brown is also a patient in LMH.

Rich Selected To Who's Who

Michelle Rich of Kenansville has been selected to Who's Who Among High School Students. She attends Harrells Christian Academy.

Since 1967, the Who's Who selection of students has been the largest and most respected publication in the nation recognizing the achievements of teen leaders. Students with high academic grades are selected to Who's Who and $50,000 in scholarships are awarded to the outstanding teens.

Michelle is a member of the National Beta Club, a varsity cheerleader, a marshal, a member of the monogram club, HCA Girls Ensemble and high school chorus. She is a member of the National Guild of Student Musicians and has been a National Winner Preparatory for Collegiate Class in National Piano Auditions for five years.

Michelle plans to attend Meredith College after graduation from high school next year. She is the daughter of Craig and Alice Rich of Kenansville.

Michelle Rich

JULY 4TH
WEEKEND SPECIAL
Grendha
The Original

FREE
Sun Visor
With Purchase
While Supplies
Last

PRETTI
SHOE STORE

116 CENTER ST. MT. OLIVE, NC

39th
Anniversary
Sale

With
39-50% OFF

4 Days Only
July 4 - 7

Entire Stock At Buddy's Jewelry

7 Stone Cluster
$49.95

1/4 ct. $179.00
1/2 ct. $299.00
1ct. $595.00

Diamond
Solitair Ring

1/4 ct. $295.00
1/2 ct. $750.00
1/3 ct. $425.00
1 ct. $1999.00

14K Gold Chains,
Bracelets & Charms

50% off

Earrings
1/4 ct.
$195

Pendant
1/4 ct.
$255

14K Gold Beads

3mm 46¢
4mm 61¢
5mm $1.07
6mm $1.53
7mm $1.80

Buddy's Jewelry

658-3258 110 N. Center St. Mount Olive
1804 W. Cumberland Dunn

AFTER
JULY 4TH
SALE
ALL
SUMMER SPORTSWEAR
20 To 30% Off

Handbags And Beach Bags &
Jeans 25% Off

FRAN'S CASUALS
BEULAVILLE