Pro. I.B. Duffer

Pro Rick Green reports about 10 teams have already signed up to play in the annual Member-Guest golf tournament scheduled at Duplin

Country Club Saturday and Sunday, August 25-26. Such stand-out two-somes planning to play registered in the pro shop include Ike Riddick and Ayden's Tom Boyd, Roy Barwick and Congressman Charlie Whitley, Hugh Carlton and Raleigh's Dewey Meshaw, Bobby Batts and Danny Yount, Steve Draughon and Wallace's Dr. David Fisher, Bailey Warren and Bruce Sasser and Pinehurst's standout Jon Giles playing with Robert Lee. Members interested in playing need to invite an old buddy or a new buddy, friend or neighbor, and call Pro Green at 296-0919 and get your name on the list.

United Methodist Women Make Plans For Fall

The program planning committee of Goldsboro District United Methodist Women met July 24 in Brodgen United Methodist Church. Committee Chairman and Vice-President Mrs. Betty Hardt served refreshments as the group arrived.

Mrs. Glenda Norton, co-ordinator of Christian Personhood, opened the meeting with devotional and prayer.

The main item on the agenda was plans for the annual district meeting at Salem United Methodist Church Sunday, Oct. 21 at 2:45 p.m. Another event planned was a Do-It-Day, a training session for local officers which is scheduled for Jan. 5, 1985, at Fremont United Methodist Church.

District President Ellis Henry Townsend asked district officers to be in touch with their groups to remind them of reports due in September. Officers were reminded that Aug. 31 was the deadline for information to be sent to U.N.I. Other dates to remember include the annual conference Oct. 5-6 at Methodist College in Fayetteville.

Croom Reunion

The Croom family will assemble for its 54th annual reunion at the Croom Meeting House on Sunday, August 19.

Since 1930, the Crooms have been meeting to honor the memory of their ancestors, have fellowship and enjoy a picnic lunch together. The morning program will begin at 11 a.m. The oldest and youngest attending and those traveling the greatest distance will be recognized. A brief business session concludes the program.

The Croom Meeting House is eight miles west of Kinston by N.C.

Highway #55 at Sandy Bottom. It was built in 1823 by Lott Croom and owned by the Croom Family and it contains its original furnishings.

The Croom Family has been traced to Ireland as outlined in a book, "The Croom Family" by Mrs. Doris C. Outlaw, who will have copies available at the reunion.

Norris Croom, publicity chairman, states all descendants and friends are invited to attend. They are asked to bring a picnic or covered-dish dinner which will be spread at 12:30 p.m.

Aglow To Meet
Aug. 11

The Kenansville chapter of Aglow will hold their monthly meeting Aug. 11 at 8:45 a.m. for fellowship and 9:30 a.m. for the meeting at Brown's Restaurant in Kenansville. The speaker will be Eva Johnston of Beulaville.
