Hobbs Receives Certification From B/PAA

W. Keith Hobbs, vice president and communications director for Cameron-Brown Company, has successfully met all requirements of the Business/Professional Advertising Association's (B/PAA) professional certification program and was designated a certified business communicator. This designation recognizes high standards of professionalism including education, experience, knowledge and professional conduct in the field of business / professional marketing communications.

Tyndall Receives Service Award

Catherine S. Tyndall of First Citizens in Pink Hill has been recognized for her service to the bank and its customers by receiving a 10-year pin.

The certification provides such communicators with a way to evaluate their level of professionalism in addition to being recognized for demonstrating high standards of competence.

Hobbs received accreditation from the International Association of Business Communicators in 1978 also.

District Ruritan Cabinet Meets

The Cape Fear District Cabinet Ruritans met Tuesday at Capt. Willie's Seafood Restaurant in Clinton for their August meeting.

Most of the business session consisted of plans for the district convention to be held Nov. 3 at East Duplin High School. Registration will be at 1 p.m. with the banquet scheduled at 6 p.m. The Albertson Club is sponsoring the convention.

All clubs are urged to mail in their community service reports by Oct. 1 so they can be judged in time for the convention, Nov. 3.

Local Groups And Members To Be Recognized At NAACP Meeting

"Several Duplin churches, civic groups and individuals will receive national recognition Saturday, Sept. 29, for their contributions to the civil rights efforts of the past few years," says Richard Miller, president of the Duplin County Branch of the NAACP.

A Duplin County life membership awards banquet will be the setting for the presentations, according to R.E. Wilkins, who is in charge of arrangements.

Churches that are to receive special recognition in 1985 are: St. Peters Holiness, Magnolia; First Baptist Church, Rose Hill; Rainbow Missionary Baptist Church, Route 2, Warsaw; and Island Creek A.M.E. Church, Route 2, Rose Hill. Individuals are: Riddick E. Wilkins Jr. (Memorial), Dorothy Martin (Memorial) and Malaiki Jones (Youth). Fraternal organization is the Golden Jewel No. 71, OES of Warsaw.

Mrs. Carolyn Q. Coleman of Greensboro, field director for the N.C. Conference of Branches, will be the guest speaker. Coleman has built the N.C. Conference to the largest in Region V, which consists of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, Florida and Mississippi.

Also special tribute and memorial will be paid to the late Mrs. Vernette

Bryant, long-time chairman of the life membership committee. "Every American, and especially every Black American, owes a debt of gratitude to the NAACP that can never be repaid," says Wilkins.

"The Duplin Branch feels that a special invitation to Whites is in order that they too might better understand the goals of America's oldest, largest, most effective, most respected civil rights organization," he said.

Proceeds from the banquet will help sponsor Duplin County's 1985 NAACP "Mother of the Year." This banquet will also commemorate the 75th anniversary in the civil right struggle, Wilkins concluded.
