

Warsaw Rec News

By George Lloyd

Junior High Dance - We had such a great response to our last dance for junior high-aged students that we'd like to have another one. The date for the next dance for students in grades 7-10 is Oct. 6. It will be held from 8-11 p.m. in the Thompson Gym. Admission is $1.50 and a good night of entertainment is promised to all. Come out prepared to dance the night away.

Midget Football - last week was the first midget football game back at the ec. Dept. The Packers beat the Redskins and the Vikings overtook the owboys from Faison. The games are held on Wednesday nights at the Rec. Dept. beginning at 6 p.m.

Co-Rec Volleyball - Co-rec volleyball season will get underway soon.

Slimnastics - A new ladies slimnastics class will begin soon. If you haven't attended one of Linda Beck's classes, you have missed a lot of fun, fellowship and exercise. Call me to register or to get details of the class being offered.

Children's Gymnastics. We will be starting a gymnastics class for the spiring olympians in our area soon. Give me a call at 293-7182 to sign up for any of the activities we have planned or to suggest some of your own.

East Duplin Teacher Of The Year

Mary Anna Grady has been selected as East Duplin High School Teacher of the Year for 1984-85. Miss Grady will be representing her school in competition to select the Duplin County Teacher of the Year in October.

A native of Albertson, Mary Anna began her teaching career at B.F. Grady School where she taught for 15 years. She transferred to East Duplin High School when it was formed from the consolidation of Beulaville, Chinquapin and Grady high schools and has taught biology and advanced biology there for 22 years.

In addition to her teaching duties, Mary Anna serves as chairman of the science department and advisor to the senior class and Future Teachers of America. She also serves on the steering, scholarship and media committees. At the county level she serves on the personnel and calendar committees.

Miss Grady is a member of the following professional organizations: life member National Education Association, North Carolina Association of Educators, National Science Teachers Association, N.C. Science Teachers Association, and Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, an honorary organization for key women teachers. She is presently serving as director of District 13 of the N.C. Science Teachers Association and is a member of the N.C. Association of Educators advisory board for the Future Teachers of America.

Among the many offices she has held in professional organizations are: president of Alpha Eta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International; president of the Eastern District Association of Classroom Teachers; and president of the Duplin County unit of the Association of Classroom Teachers. She has also served as vice-president of the Duplin County unit of the N.C. Association of Educators, three terms on the state resolutions committee of the ACT, and as a member of the state executive board of the NCACT.

Among the special recognitions she has received in the past are: the DSA conferred on her by the NCAE-ACT in 1971 in recognition of a sustaining interests in and contribution to public education, an honorary certificate of merit in recognition of a significant contribution to the advisory council District 13 ACT in 1978; Duplin County Teacher of the year 1971; one of three finalists in the N.C.
