

Carr-Parker Exchange Vows

Carolyn Marie Parker and William Brice Carr Jr. were united in marriage at Rockfish Presbyterian Church, Wallace. Dr. Jesse Parks performed the double-ring ceremony at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, August 11th, 1984.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Gene Parker of Rose Hill and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucy B. Parker of Rose Hill.

The groom is the son of William Brice Carr of Winston-Salem and Mrs. Helen Sledge of Asheboro. The grandparents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Gibson S. Carr of Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. P.D. Dixon of Wilmington.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Nancy Brice, organist, Mrs. Carolyn McElveen, pianist, and Miss Melissa Brooks, soloist, who sang "O Promise Me," "The Lord's Prayer," and she also played "Angel Serenade" on the flute.

The couple spoke their vows before an altar setting centered with an arrangement of white snapdragons, white and lavender mums, white roses and greenery. One arch and two spiral candelabras held lighted tapers accented by large palms. Pew markers were greenery with white bows and babies'-breath.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of lace and taffeta with a chapel-length train. The bodice featured a schiffli embroidered yoke with a stand-up neckline, long leg-omitted sleeves of schiffli and silk venise lace. She wore a bridal picture hat covered in lace with a puff bow and floor-length veiling adorned with white satin ribbon streamers. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of silk white roses and lily-of-the-valley accented with ivy.

Miss Dawn Hanchey of Wallace served as maid of honor. She wore a gown of lilac tissue taffeta with a ruffled off-the-shoulder bodice featuring lilac rosebuds. She carried a basket of mixed summer flowers. The bridesmaids were Suzanne Colwell of Wallace, Ramona Toler of Wallace and Lisa Stroud of Kenansville. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor and carried baskets of mixed summer flowers.

Serving as junior bridesmaids were Lisa and Kim Merritt of Sumter, S.C., cousins of the bride, and Angela Carr of Wallace. They carried nosegays of summer flowers.

Amy Parker, sister of the bride, was the flowergirl. Her gown of lilac and white taffeta featured a bodice of ruffled lace and puffed sleeves and a scalloped hemline. Babies'-breath adorned her hair and she carried a basket of mixed summer flowers.

Elwood Garner, cousin of the bride, served as acolyte. Jonathan Fussell, cousin of the groom, served as ring-bearer. He wore a white tuxedo matching those of the ushers. The groom was dressed in a white tuxedo with tails and wore a white rosebud boutonniere accented with babies'-breath.

The father of the groom was best man. Ushers were Gene Parker II, brother of the bride, Tim Simpson of Wallace, and Jonathan Barnette of Kenansville. They wore tuxedos similar to that of the groom.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. June Bowen of Rose Hill. Miss Donna English of Wallace presided at the guest register.

Following a wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina, the couple will reside in Winston-Salem.

The bride is a 1984 graduate of Wallace-Rose Hill High School. The groom is a 1984 graduate of James Sprunt Technical College and is employed by Carr's Freight Agency of Winston-Salem.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given by the bride's family in the fellowship hall of the church. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. George Garner of Kenansville, aunt and uncle of the bride.

After the couple cut the traditional first slice of a four-tiered wedding cake featuring lavender flowers topped with the traditional bride and groom, Mrs. Emily Carr, aunt of the groom, served the wedding cake. Mrs. Peggy Powell of Southern Pines, aunt of the bride, served the punch. Refreshments included fresh fruit compote, mints, cheese stars, sausage balls, roasted pecans and cashew nuts, a vegetable tray and dip, and fresh strawberries and dip.

The bride's table featured the bridal bouquet and displayed her wedding portrait. Rice maidens were Heather Powell of Southern Pines, Holly Garner of Warsaw, and Jessica Page of Warsaw, all cousins of the bride. Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Roger Parker of Rose Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Parker, also of Rose Hill, all aunts and uncles of the bride.

Rehearsal Dinner

Following the wedding rehearsal on Friday, August 10, the family of the groom hosted a dinner for the wedding party, family and friends in the church fellowship hall. The groom's cake was served at this time and the groom presented gifts to his attendants.

Hospital Auxiliary Holds Annual Meeting

Fall is a busy season of the year. It was quite evident at the meeting of Duplin General Hospital Auxiliary members on Wednesday morning of last week. They held their annual recognition day and invitation to new members, and planning for the coming year at their luncheon at the Graham House Inn. Twenty-four members and guests were present.

After a very good lunch was enjoyed, many business items were discussed. The Auxiliary presented to Richard Harrell, administrator, a check for $3,252.93 as half payment on a piece of equipment for the hospital nursery. Mr. Harrell expressed thanks to the group for the money.

Mr. Harrell introduced Jimmy Peterson, the new pharmacist at the hospital. He also told the group of several items that the hospital needed if the Auxiliary is interested in other purchases.

The Auxiliary plans to have a card and games party on Friday night, Oct. 12 at James Sprunt Technical College at 7:30. Any type of cards or games may be played. Invite people to come with you and make up your own table. Tickets are $3 per person. Plenty of goodies will be served and prizes awarded. Join the crowd and help the Auxiliary buy more equipment for the hospital.

The Auxiliary also plans to have a Flea Market sale at the Wallace Stockyards on Saturday, Oct. 6th. Anyone having odds and ends they would like to donate is asked to donate them to the Auxiliary for their fund-raising event.

The following members were recognized for over 100 hours of service the past year: Rachel Blanchard 150, Doris English 181, Carolyn Hall 224, Joann Howard 236, Sally Ingram, 108, Thelma Ingram, 115, Ruth Jones 133, Thelma King 118, Louise Mitchell 104, Mary Mullis 152, Margaret Oakley 146, Ann Outlaw 134, Virginia Penny 124, Elsie Powers 117, Eleanor Sawyer 103, Martha Swann 180, Sally Tyndall 122.

Kenansville. Hostesses were Mrs. Mary Page of Warsaw, Mrs. Dorothy Lane of Warsaw, and Mrs. Diane Garner of Warsaw and Mrs. Betty Sutton of Faison, and Peggy Powell of Southern Pines, all aunts of the bride. The hostesses presented a flower arrangement in a grapevine basket to the bride-to-be.
