Mormon Missionaries

Janet Weis and Paulene Kunz are Mormon missionaries with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Woodington Ward. Janet, left, 21, hails from Winton, California. She has three sisters and two brothers. She enjoys basketball and loves the outdoors, camping, hiking and horseback riding. She says, "My favorite thing about the South is biscuits and gravy." Paulene is from Bern, Idaho, and is 23. She has one sister and five brothers. Her dad is a farmer, growing wheat and barley. She loves music and sports. She has been on the mission for over a year. Paulene enjoys the Southern people.

Hobby Turns Into Nursery Business

The title is not a new one, for many small businesses start as a backyard hobby. Hinkle's Nursery, a three-acre canned, broadleaf evergreen and azalea liner operation located in Beulaville is such a business.

The nursery was started by Nathan "Nat" Hinkle more than a dozen years ago as his way of relaxing from long selling trips. He enjoyed growing and propagating azaleas and found there is a market for high quality plant materials.

Today the nursery roots about one million azalea liners (about 150 cultivars) during the summer months. The rooted cuttings are over-wintered in greenhouses and sold during winter and spring months.

During this time, Nat's son, Disel, was growing up in the business. It was Nat's hobby and a business for Disel, who enrolled in Lenoir Community College's horticulture program in Kinston. Upon graduation in the spring of 1980, Disel started running the nursery full-time for his dad.

After four years, a few changes have occurred. As of 1984, Disel is the sole owner of Hinkle's Nursery and this spring Disel's wife had a fine healthy boy, who perhaps may follow in his father's steps. Nat will not be far from the business and may start some new venture in the near future.

The nursery is worth a visit if you are in the area to see where a hobby can lead. The nursery may be reached by writing Hinkle's Nursery, P.O. Box 441, Beulaville, NC 28518.

Crime Of The Week

Lenoir County Sheriff's deputies are investigating the larceny of a riding lawnmower from the residence of Preston Waller, Route 5, Box 252, Kinston, which occurred Sept. 7. According to reports, the mower was taken from a barn behind Waller's residence. The mower was described as being an International Cub Cadet riding lawnmower, model 1200, serial no. 542163, yellow and white, with blue stickers across the hood. Total value was approximately

MS Fund Drive

Barbara T. Elmore will lead the Pink Hill area appeal for multiple sclerosis. The Hot Dog Wagon will be at the Pink Hill Fire Department Oct. 11, 12 and 13 for the purpose of raising funds for MS.

Multiple Sclerosis is a neurological disease affecting the brain and spinal cord. It is not contagious nor is it a mental disease. There are more than 500,000 people in America with MS.

Funds will be used to expand research, chapter services, and public education for residents of eastern North Carolina.

Your help would be greatly appreciated.

Pink Hill To Sponsor Jail-A-Thon

Pink Hill residents will have an opportunity to take out a "warrant" for their next door neighbor, the mayor, their minister, or other "criminals" when a Jail-a-thon for the benefit of the American Cancer Society is held Oct. 18-19. This first-time event for Pink Hill should be a great success if the results in other communities such as Mount Olive and Kenansville are used as examples. Over $8,000 was raised in each town for the American Cancer Society.

During the event, you may telephone the "Jail," a wooden structure resembling a jail cell which will be located at the First Citizens Bank in Pink Hill. During the phone call you give the name of the person you wish to be "arrested" by off-duty policemen and the location where the "criminal" may be found.

Arrest fees are $20 per person and the "bail" for the "criminal" will be a minimum of $100, but will be higher for more desperate or vicious offenders. The participants are brought to the "jail" and given telephones to call their friends, neighbors and relatives to obtain pledges for the ACS. These pledges constitute the person's "bail." Usually only one hour or less is spent at the site. The Jail-a-thon is scheduled from 12 noon to 5 p.m. on Oct. 18 and from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. on October 19.
