Duplin Pro Rick Green announced the club championship will be played Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 13-14. Green says the format will be a 36-hole medal play tournament with players placed in flights according to their handicap. Saturday all players play anytime with group of their choice and Sunday's round starts at one o'clock - shotgun start. Green invites all male members to call and sign up to play in the championship. "It makes no difference how you play. You will be placed in a flight with golfers that play similarly to you," Green said. Harold "Spider" Mathis will be in charge and if you need addition info, call Duke's in downtown Warsaw any afternoon.

Rockfish Pro Frank Morgan reports Wallace's Harry Carlton beat out Mack Horrell for the 1984 championship. Congratulations. I agree with Knott. You are really the best. Wesley Scronce stopped Robert Matthews for the first flight title, Web Turlington beat Dan Robinson for the championship in the second, and Dave Wells won third over Charlie Wood.

Lakewood's Doug Smith reports

winners in the Spectrum Glass Products tournament held at his club with Lynn Medlin overall winner with a four-over 75, just in front of Jack Bisette with a 79. Mike Wynne stopped Jeff Balkum in the first, Jack Fulton beat Ricky Matlocks in the second, Marvin Cox edged Ray Johnson in the third, and Neal Justice bested Mike Johnson in the final flight.

Gerald Quinn, Gerald Haywood Quinn, Charles Sutton, Mark Vinson and Betty Potter won the Superball tourney staged at Duplin CC Sunday afternoon with a best ball 63, nine under par. J.C. Page's team of George Clark, Kenn Hudson, Jim and Betty Stocker took second place with a best ball 64.

Pro Rick Green plans to oversee some time shortly following the club championship tournament scheduled next weekend, Oct. 13-14. Doug Smith will oversee next week at Lakewood CC.

Pro Frank Morgan called to let us know a Captain's Choice two-man tournament is on tap at Rockfish of Wallace October 13-14.

ED Travels To Midway

Hobpton Hosts James Kenan

TIGER FIELD: Coach Billy Byrd's fighting Tigers completely outclassed a scrappy Midway eleven Friday night in Warsaw, 42-14 in an ECC clash. It was the third straight win for Byrd's team and kept them tied for first in the ECC 2-A race with Wallace-Rose Hill with a 3-0 mark.

James Kenan's defense gave another sterling performance as they cut down the Raiders' air attack and had the ground game under fire all night in one of the most outstanding exhibitions seen in years at Tiger Field. Defensive coordinator Coach John Barrows had James Kenan just about ready for anyone in the Midway game. Of course, Coach Byrd's crop of running backs, led by All-ECC Mickey Faison, will probably stack up with the best in the school's history.

Faison, the most outstanding back in JK history, rushed for 197 yards and scored three touchdowns in the one-sided win over Midway. Another star in the JK attack, Bruce Dixon, rushed for 112 yards and scored a TD. Shane Crenshaw got in the act with a 2-yard score and Tim Hooks returned a punt 70 yards to add to the JK runaway.

Deep Run: Wallace-Rose Hill ran all over South Lenoir 40-0 Friday night in an ACC game. The win kept the Bulldogs tied with James Kenan in the conference with a 3-0 record. Coach Jack Holley's team is undefeated with a 5-0 mark.

Wallace-Rose Hill, a second-half scoring machine, led 7-0 at half, but Johnny Johnson added a couple, Kevin Alderman scored, Glenn Bradshaw scored on a fumble and Kevin Williams hit Rickey Brown on a 30-yard TD. Greg Carter kicked four extra points.

Clinton: Quarterback Clarence Underwood put on a one-man show rushing for 131 yards, including a 66-yard TD run in directing Hobpton to a 17-6 ECC win over Union. In other ECC action Don Pate rushed for 139 yards to race past Lakewood 26-10, as the Rebels of North Duplin picked up their second win.
