

After Crash Last Saturday

Four Victims Hospitalized In Kenansville Accident

Four of nine people injured in a two-car accident Saturday afternoon in Duplin County have been admitted to area hospitals. One is in the intensive care unit of Duplin General Hospital, said Richard Harrell, hospital administrator.

Priscilla A. Jones, 32, of Trenton, N.J., was the driver of one of the vehicles. She is in stable condition in the intensive care unit, Harrell said.

The other three were admitted to New Hanover Memorial Hospital. They are Leah Richards, 6, of Springfield, Va., and Tennale Davis, 7, and Laurie Davis, 6, both of New Jersey. All three are in fair condition, a hospital spokeswoman said.

The other five people, ages 4 to 20, were treated at Duplin General Hospital and released Saturday, a hospital spokeswoman said.

The accident occurred at N.C. 50 and S.R. 1959, about two miles south of Kenansville. Troopers said one of the cars apparently ran a stop sign. There were no skid marks and both cars are believed to have been traveling near 55 mph when they collided. Both cars were destroyed. No charges had been filed in the accident, Trooper B.E. Floyd said.

You needn't be left high and dry on the highway in an emergency. A first aid or highway safety kit may be a lifeline for many motorists.

A first aid and highway safety kit can be a motorist's best friend in an emergency.

The Youth Rescue Fund is selling first aid and highway safety kits to benefit "kids in crisis." The kits include first aid supplies and instructions, distress flag, and emergency flare. The kits are compact and fit conveniently in most glove compartments.

Proceeds from the sale of the kits go to the Youth Rescue Fund (YRF) Inc. which helps young people who experience drug and alcohol problems, who are abused or neglected, or who run away from home.

The kits cost $5.95 apiece and make caring gifts. To order a kit and help a kid, send $5.95 (includes postage and handling) to Youth Rescue Fund-Kit, 6715 Lowell Avenue, McLean, VA 22101.
