Lisa Brady, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brady of Route 2, Wallace, has been selected the Hugh O'Brian Outstanding Sophomore at East Duplin High School.

She will represent her school at the North Carolina Leadership Seminar that will be sponsored by the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation (HOBY). More than 8,000 sophomore leaders representing as many high schools nationwide participated in last year's seminars. This year students will explore "America's Incentive System" during the workshops.

All sophomores at East Duplin were eligible to participate in the program by preparing answers to: How have you demonstrated leadership ability? How have you expressed sensitivity and concern for others? and How have you shown the desire to learn and share knowledge and experience with others?

Lisa's paper was chosen as the best so she will represent East Duplin.

Lisa was very active in school during her junior high days. She was president of the Beta Club, YAC and captain of the cheerleading squad. She served as freshman vice-president last year.

Congratulations are due Lisa for a job well done in the HOBY program this year.

Rates Lower During Holidays

Most people look forward to holidays, and Carolina Telephone customers have even more to look forward to on five designated holidays each year. That is when special long distance rates are available.

Since Thanksgiving is one of the designated holidays, customers this year were able to make long distance calls at the evening rate all day. The evening rate for calls placed within

North Carolina is 25 percent off the full rate, while the evening rate for calls placed outside the state is at a 40 percent discount.

"If the calls are made at night after 11 p.m., and before 8 a.m. the next day, the rates are even lower," said W.S. Richardson, district commercial manager. "And by placing the calls themselves, customers can avoid the operator service charge."

Richardson said the other designated holidays when the special long distance discount rates apply include Christmas, New Year's Day, July 4th and Labor Day.

The Carolina Telephone spokesman reminded customers that other reduced long distance rate periods are available and that an explanation can be found in Call Guide 5 in each Carolina Telephone directory.

Vegetable Growers Association Trade Show And School

On Thursday, Dec. 6, the North Carolina Fresh Vegetable Growers Association is having their annual trade show and school. It will be held at the Lenoir County agricultural extension office on Route 11, just south of Kinston. It will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

This is an excellent opportunity to meet with university and industry personnel to discuss the upcoming growing season. There will be over 30 exhibitors representing seed companies, fertilizer dealers, equipment and chemical companies.

The school will consist of two concurrent sessions which gives a choice most suitable to your interests. A session on sweet corn, insects, soil pans, tillage, and plastics are examples of what is on the program.

There will be a $5 charge at the gate for adults. Wives accompanying husbands will be free. This fee is for membership to the association, and also includes a timely newsletter.

For more information and a complete listing of the program, contact Phil Denlinger at the Duplin County agricultural extension office, 296-1996.
