Receives Scholarship

An 18-year-old North Carolina student who did research on the amount of sugar in some regularly purchased foods has been named one of six national winners in the 4-H food-nutrition program.

Tracie Harper of Route 2, Kinston, received a $1,000 scholarship from The General Foods Fund, Inc., the program sponsor.

Selected by the Cooperative Extension Service, winners were presented their awards during the 63rd National 4-H Congress in Chicago Nov. 25-29. Awards are arranged by National 4-H Council.

Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil B. Harper, is a high school senior and plans a career as a home economist or nutrition specialist.

The Lenoir County 4-H'er put together a demonstration entitled "Sugar, Sugar Everywhere" in which she discussed the high amount of sugar in some store-bought foods.

She explained "how to read ingredient labels to determine if different forms of sugar are hidden in products such as catsup and salad dressing."

Head Of Stabilization Begins Duties

Marcia M. Grant of Pink Hill has begun duties as the Forsyth County executive director of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The ASCS administers government farm programs.

The Forsyth ASCS Committee appointed Mrs. Grant to succeed Walter L. Hobbs Jr., who had been the director for 25 years before retiring in June.

Mrs. Grant has been the Lenoir County ASCS programs assistant in Kinston for the past two years, working primarily in the tobacco and grain programs.

She recently completed the ASCS training program for new county executive directors. The training included brief assignments in several county offices, including Yadkin and Guilford.

A native of Lenoir County, she received a psychology degree from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington in 1981.

Although she did not grow up on a farm, Mrs. Grant said she has worked on a farm, including priming tobacco.

She and her husband Albert have a daughter, Jessica. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dorwood Mincey of Pink Hill.

Phillip and Patsy are making their home at Route 2, Pink Hill.

Crime Of The Week

Lenoir County Sheriff's deputies are investigating an armed robbery of the KLOC Service Station on N.C. Hwy. 11 North at 7:10 p.m., Dec. 1.

According to reports, Kirby Loftin, store owner, and employee Horace Byrd were in the store when a Black man entered the store carrying a yellow kerosene can. He asked one of the men to fill it and then allegedly pulled a single-shot sawed-off shotgun and told them to give him all their money.

The robber took the men's wallets and an undetermined amount of money from the cash register. He told the employees to walk to the back of the store and a shot was discharged from the shotgun striking Loftin in the left thigh. The robber then ran from the store. He was described as 5 ft., 9 inches tall, slender build, wearing dark rimmed glasses.

Lenoir County Crime Stoppers, Inc. will pay up to $1,000 for information leading to the arrest and indictment of the robber. The amount of the reward depends on the seriousness of the crime and value of the information. Anyone having information in this crime or any crime is asked to call Crime Stoppers at 523-4444 weekdays from 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Callers need not give their names as all callers remain anonymous.

Thanks To Liberty Pageant

I would like to say thank you for the opportunity to compete and become Junior Miss Liberty. I had such fun meeting new friends and being with them during the practices we had. It is hard to describe the excitement on the night of the pageant when I received the crown and became Junior Miss Liberty. This has truly been one of the most exciting experiences of my life and one that I will never forget.

During the year of my reign, I will try to fulfill the duties and obligations of Junior Miss Liberty to the best of my abilities and to be worthy of the title I hold.

Love,
Carlette Smith

Goldsboro High School Touring Choir

This high school group has a truly professional sound. With 70 regular members and the direction of Ms. Eleanor Harris, the group's repertoire ranges from classical to popular. Ms. Harris accompanies as well as directs the group. Other instrumentalists often perform in concert with them also. Earlier this year in Duplin, the chorus performed at Beulaville School, Chinquapin I School, and Charity Middle School.

Concert tours for the touring choir have included trips to Bermuda, Washington, Florida and New Orleans.

They will be performing at East Duplin High School at 9:30 a.m., at E.E. Smith at 11:08 a.m., and North Duplin High School at 1:58 p.m. on Monday, December 17. The public is invited.

This special program is brought to Duplin County by the Duplin County Arts Council.

Kennedy-Lupton Wed

Mrs. Elaine O. Lupton of Route 2, Mount Olive, and Daniel R. Kennedy of Pink Hill were united in marriage recently at the Marriage Chapel in Dillon, S.C.

Elaine is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. John Owens of Route 2, Mount Olive. She is a teacher's aide at B.F. Grady School and the mother of two daughters, Tammy and Kim Lupton.

Daniel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Kennedy of Pink Hill. He is self-employed at Kennedy's Service Center. He has one daughter, Kimberly.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy and their three daughters are residing in Pink Hill.

A Traditional Christmas

"A Traditional Christmas" will be presented at the Pink Hill Library on December 19 beginning at 7:30 p.m. with songs, storytelling and Santa, too.

Cantata

The Christian Chapel Fee Will Baptist Church's chancel choir will present their cantata, "Country Christmas" on Sunday night, Dec. 16 at 7 p.m.

Their Christmas plays will be on Sunday night, Dec. 23 at 7 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

THANK YOU

We would like to take this time to thank the community of Pink Hill and the surrounding area for their kindness and help that they showed us during our time of loss.

May God bless each and everyone.
Bob, Sandra, Tony & David Kopanski
