Lodge Installs Officers

On Saturday, Dec. 29, the brothers of Beulah #110 Masonic Lodge, F.&A.M., were hosts to their annual Elderly Brothers' Holidays banquet, held this year in the lodge's dining hall. The program, emceed by Marshal Amos Dobson Jr., headed the ceremonies with the Purpose of Occasion. Due to the hospitalization of the scheduled speaker, Grand District Deputy Henry L. Treadwell, W.M. John Wesley Sanders Jr. spoke in behalf of the deputy. Also on the program were Darrell F. Washington, who presented an essay on "What Makes a Master Mason" and the Rev. Ernest Frederick, who led the invocation. Sanders presented district awards to the lodge and special Certificates of Honor recognizing brethren who had extended outstanding services through 1984. Some recipients were Brothers Amos Dobson Jr., William Frank Miller, William Stroud, Robert A. Jones, Darrell F. Washington, Willie J. Steele Jr. and others. Samuel L. Washington was honored for perfect attendance and Edd Dudley Monk received the "Oldest Active Brother" award. The widows of deceased brothers received gifts. After remarks from the recipients, the 17 honor guests and others present enjoyed a buffet-style meal prepared by the officers of the lodge. Officers for the new year are: Worshipful Master John Wesley Sanders Jr., Senior Warden William J. Stroud; Junior Warden James T. McGowan; Senior Deacon Durwood Graham; Junior Deacon James Henry Robinson; Secretary William F. Miller; Treasurer Samuel L. Washington; Marshals Amos Dobson Jr. and George N. Ammons; Stewards Willie J. Steele Jr. and Dexter Forte; and Tyler Haywood Green Jr. Shown above is Master Sanders presenting Past Master Edd Monk his Certificate of Honor recognizing his dedicated services of over 40 years.

Lenoir Extension Offers Conservation Workshops

The N.C. Agricultural Extension Service is planning a series of conservation workshops across the state during the week of Jan. 28-31.

A Conservation Tillage Workshop will be held in Kinston at King's Restaurant on Jan. 29 from 9:30 - 12 noon. The purpose of the workshop is to present the latest findings and recommendations that will enable farmers to achieve the best results from a conservation tillage system. This workshop will benefit both experienced and inexperienced conservations tillage farmers.

The program will include residue management, tillage operations, stand establishment and fertilization, legumes for cover and nitrogen, pest management, no-till forage establishment, and economic incentives. Time will be allowed for questions and discussion.

A meal will be served so you must call the Extension office at 527-2191 to make reservations by January 25, according to Johnnie Jones III, Lenoir County extension chairman.

Lenoir County Crime Of The Week

Kinston police officers are investigating the murder of Ms. Hokie Shepherd of 1100 E. Caswell St., which occurred on Tuesday, Jan. 8. According to police reports, Ms. Shepherd's nude body was found lying on the floor between a bathroom and bedroom in her home by a friend. Ms. Shepherd's 1983 burgundy Cadillac, license number CDY-76 was also stolen.

Lenoir County Crime Stoppers will pay a reward up to $1,000 for information leading to the arrest or indictment of the person or persons responsible for the crime.

Anyone with information can call Crime Stoppers, 523-4444 weekdays from 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Callers need not give their names as all callers remain anonymous.

SENIOR CITIZENS TO MEET

The Young in Heart Senior Citizens will meet Wednesday, Jan. 23 at 2 p.m. at the Pink Hill Presbyterian Church. A speaker will be present to speak on Income Tax Forms.

G. Harold Rose, revenue officer for the N.C. Department of Revenue, advises that personnel to assist in filing state income and intangibles tax returns will be available on Tuesdays of each week through April 15. The office is located at South Courthouse Square in Kenansville, and assistance is available between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Rose requests that taxpayers bring the pre-addressed forms which were mailed to them from Raleigh. Taxpayers filing their own returns should mail their completed returns to the appropriate Raleigh address.

The first dining cars were in service on the Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad in 1863. They had no seats: passengers ate standing up or took their food back to their seat.
