

Grand Opening Of Anthony's Hair Designs

Anthony's Hair Designs recently held grand opening ceremonies at the business located next to McDavid and Associates on Main Street in Kenansville. The shop opened March 12 and operates Monday through Friday 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Saturday 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. offering services for the entire family with no appointments necessary. Pictured above, during grand opening ceremonies, are: Bobby Brown, James Sprunt Technical College cosmetology instructor; Anthony "Tony" Martin, shop owner / stylist; and Martin's father Wilbert Martin, mother Janice Martin, sister Debbie Berens, and nephews Shane and Gregory; and staff members Kim Johnson, stylist; and Becky Buckner, stylist. Martin is a graduate of James Sprunt Technical College in cosmetology and is a resident of rural Mount Olive.

Lakewood's Doug Smith and Billy Potter won the 8th annual Coharie Country Club Two-Man Invitational last weekend with rounds of 66-67-133. Smith and Potter were defending champs at the CCC spacious layout just north of Clinton. Sam Kitchin teamed with Bill Boles to win second with rounds of 65-70-135, while Jack Hooks and partner Joel Harris came in third with rounds of 63-73-136.

New Pro Ben Hunt says 160 players participated and had a most enjoyable weekend. "We will start getting ready for the '86 tourney starting Monday," Hunt said.

Duplin's Betty Potter and Minnie Clark played in the Ladies Invitational held last week at the New Bern Country Club. Maybelle Whitaker, Luba Garris, Betty Matthews, Gwen Gideon and Hazel Blanchard of Rockfish of Wallace also participated in the Invitational at New Bern.

The second annual Duplin County Shrine Club tournament will be held at Duplin CC on Saturday, May 11th. Contact Melvin Pope or Bill Potter for additional information.

Yes, the non-descripts at Duplin rose up and slew the insurance wigs and your favorite tattle-tale.

Duplin Pro Rick Green announces winners in the Superball played at his club Friday afternoon, including overall winners A.M. Benton, Jim and Betty Stocker, Lonnie and Claudette Hedrick, and the flashy Mark Vinson with a best ball 28. Johnny and Connie Carlton, Fisher Carlton, Dwight Kirby and young Ron Carlton came in second with a best ball 30. Green says the club will sponsor a late Friday afternoon tourney every week through the summer.

The Lady Sandtrappers will travel to Coharie Country Club the last Tuesday in May. All clubs are invited to play in these ladies events.

Pro Ben Hunt reminds golfers of the second annual Jaycee Golf Tournament scheduled at Coharie CC June 8-9.
