Pro. I.B. Duffer

Pro Rick Green announces the 1985 Duplin County Club Two-Man Best-Ball golf tournament scheduled Saturday and Sunday, June 22-23. Entry fee of $100 includes a practice round, 36 holes of flighted tournament golf, carts, dance and gift certificates for first four places in each flight. Get your application form in early, by Sunday, June 16, and your name will be entered in the drawing for a Palmer Peerless driver to be given away.

Warsaw's Bob Brumleve and partner Donnie Ezzell tied Melvin Pope and Diane Reichard with a best-ball, blind drawing 134, using handicap, 10-under par in the annual Shindig at Duplin this past weekend. Fisher Carlton and teammate Kenn Hudson came in second place, one stroke back of the winning team.

Coharie Country Club of Clinton will be the site of the 1985 Pork and Poultry Golf Classic sponsored by the Clinton Jaycees Saturday and Sunday, June 8-9. Entry fee of $110 includes carts, practice round, dance and two days on a fine golf course.

Duplin's big social event of the season, known as the Shindig, was held this past Saturday. Pro Rick Green says it was another big successful club event which included a pig pickin', golf tournament, dance and plenty of prizes given away at the dinner and dance.

Lakewood Country Club reports results of the Wednesday afternoon superbowl golf tourney with Mike Newkirk's team of Danny and Daniel Bordeaux, Gerald Rivenbark and Eulene Gavin overall winners with a best ball 30. Bobby Smith and his team of Bruce Herring, Bryan Williams, Woodrow Blackburn and Abbie Smith came in second with a 31.

Pro Rick Green listed the following who helped make the annual Shindig a success at DCC this year: Modern Cleaners of Faison, Betty Stocker, Connie Carlton, Judy Hudson, Robert West, Brad Hawkins, The Style Shop, Deno's of Kenansville, Bob's Place, Sears of Warsaw, the

Country Squire, Powell's Cleaners, Carlton Insurance Agency, Dail's TV, Ronnie's Beauty Shop, Smith's Cleaners, Warsaw Drug, Carroll's of Warsaw, Service Oil Co., Joyce's Boutique, Golden Skillet of Warsaw, Eason's Furniture, Page Home

Miller Retires After 20 Years At Camp Lejeune

Joseph H. Miller, a native of Kenansville, has recently retired as a barber from Camp Lejeune after 20 years of service.

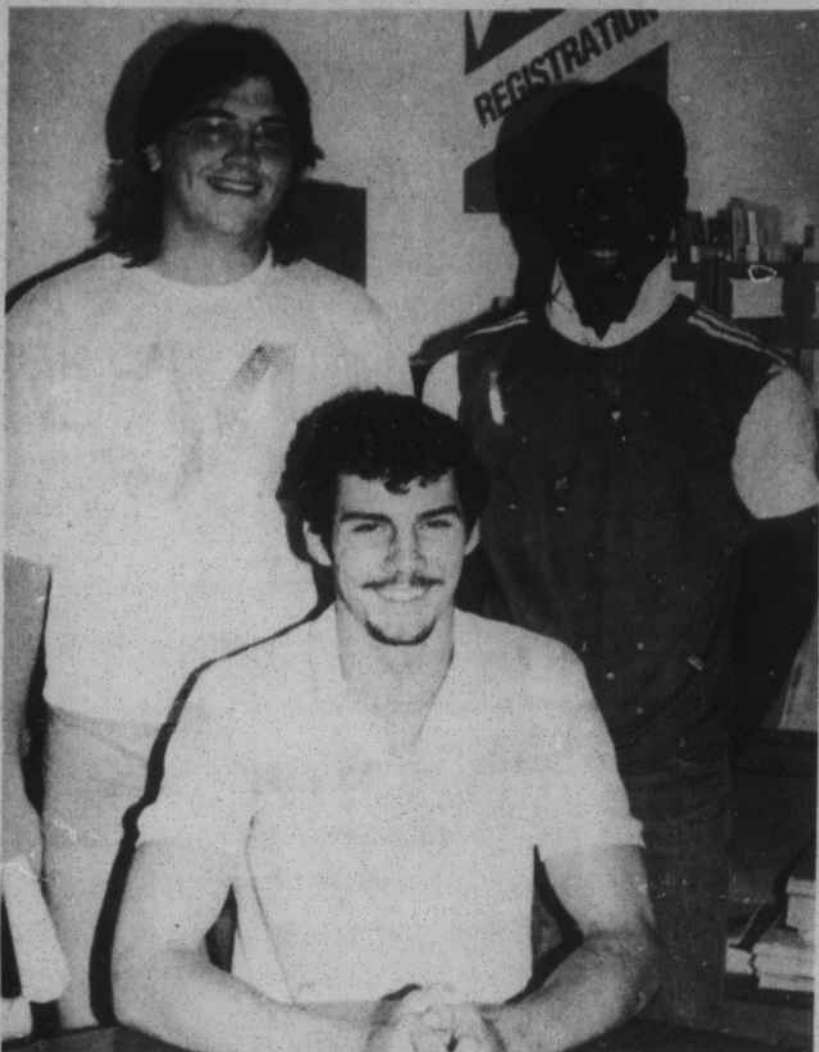

Joseph is married to Martha Miller and has four children and nine grandchildren. He is very active in many religious and civic organizations. He has served in leadership capacities as chairman of the Kenansville First Baptist Church Trustee board, two terms as worship master mason, active consistory Lodge member, and NAACP member.

Joseph has enjoyed working on his farm as a pastime. He plans to continue his farm activities. He also plans to travel and participate in more community services. Joseph's philosophy is that if you give to the world the best that you have, then the best will come back to you.
