Magnolia's super stars Billy Potter and Doug Smith won the 1985 Pork and Poultry Golf Classic held at Coharie Country Club in Clinton. It was the second straight win in the Sampson Classic for the two standouts from Lakewood Country Club. Wilmington's Jack Hooks and Joel Coleman came in second place in the two-day event.

Rockfish of Wallace will stage a nine-hole superball June 14th at 6 p.m., according to Pro Frank Morgan. Morgan also says annual July 4th Scramble and family cookout is on tap again for all members and guests.

Pro Rick Atkins reports results of the American Cancer Golf Tournament held at Southern Wayne last Friday with Neal Lancaster, Tom Johnson, Woody Caton and David Perkins winners in the scratch division, and Jay Bundy, Archie Parrish, Bryce Ficken and Bill Igoe winners in the handicap division. Both foursomes will move to the state finals at Myrtle Beach Labor Day weekend.

Pro Rick Green announces a Two-Man Invitational Golf Tournament on June 22-23. The format will be two-man, best-ball with merchandise awarded in each flight. Entry fee of $100 per team includes carts for Saturday and Sunday, practice round and other prizes. An early-bird special is also included for those who send entry fees prior to June 15. Those names will be entered in a drawing for a Palmer Peerless driver. Entry fee should be mailed to Pro Rick Green at Duplin Country Club. Additional information at 296-0919.

Duplin's Betty Potter was the winner of the first flight in the Ladies Invitational held at Southern Wayne Country Club in Mount Olive last week. Elnora Whetsell of Mount Olive was the overall winner of the tourney.

Lonnie Hedrick's team of Colon Quinn, Claudette Hedrick, Dottie Quinn and Mitchell Quinn won the Friday afternoon "Bassackwards" golf tournament at Duplin CC with a best ball 28. Lloyd Parker's team of Betty Potter, Norwood West and Joe Costin were in second place with a 31.

Warsaw's Robbie Lee, president of the Duplin County unit of the American Cancer Society, announces a benefit golf tournament is planned for Saturday, July 20 at Rockfish Country Club in Wallace. Winners of the Duplin County tournament will advance to the American Cancer Society State tournament to be held Sept. 1-2 at Bay Tree Golf Club at Myrtle Beach. If you would like to play (get a foursome), or make a donation to this countywide effort, contact Harry Carlton or Betty Matthews in Wallace, Bobby Smith, Doug Smith or Billy Potter at Lakewood CC, Butch Budd or Shirley Pickett at Longmeadow CC, Connie Carlton, Joe Costin or Rick Green at Duplin CC. Proceeds from the tournament will go to the Cancer Society.

Pro I.B. Duffer is going to give you one of his rare tips. . .The golf course at DCC is in good shape and greens are very good.

Nursing Graduates

Twenty graduates of the Lenoir Memorial Hospital School of Nursing received their diplomas Friday, June 7 during commencement ceremonies at Kinston's First Baptist Church. The 1985 class is the first to complete a two-year diploma program at the school.

Among the graduates receiving diplomas were Amanda Jane Byrd of Pink Hill and Rebecca Lea Howard of Magnolia.
