

Popa-Brumleve Wed

Miss Sarah Ann Brumleve and Louis Stephen Popa, both of Endicott, New York, were united in marriage on Saturday, August 3, in the Warsaw Presbyterian Church. The Reverend Earl M. Vaughan officiated at the six o'clock double-ring ceremony.

Music for the wedding was presented by Timothy R. Brumleve of Urbana, Illinois, organist and brother of the bride, Mrs. D. Burke Kerr of Clinton, organist, and Mrs. Margaret Lloyd of Faison, vocalist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Brumleve and the granddaughter of Mrs. Lawrence F. Kerwin, all of Warsaw. She is a graduate of Peace College and Central Carolina Technical College. She is presently employed at Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital in Binghamton, New York.

The groom is a graduate of Penn State University and is a programmer/analyst at IBM in Owego, New York. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Popa of Hermitage, Pennsylvania.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride chose for her wedding a formal gown of white matte taffeta. The gown was fashioned with an off-the-shoulder lace and taffeta puff sleeve with a lace-edged ruffle. The fitted bodice and slightly raised waistline were trimmed in French beaded Alencon lace. Covered bridal buttons enhanced the back closing. The full A-line skirt and semi-cathedral train were encircled with a lace-edged ruffle and highlighted with a pyramid of lace-edged ruffled tiers and appliqued with French beaded Alencon lace. Her finger-tip veil of imported silked illusion featuring a scalloped lace-edged border and blusher was attached to a lace covered Juliet cap. She wore pearl earrings and a pearl necklace, both gifts from the groom. The bride carried a petite old-fashioned nosegay consisting of light blue freesia, blue agapanthus and pale pink alstroemeria and interspersed with dainty white gypsophila and stephanotis tied with white satin eyelet picot ribbon.

Mrs. Anna Graham of Warsaw was the matron of honor. Her gown of periwinkle blue taffeta with a chiffon overlay had a triple-tiered bodice with dropped back and a satin ribbon belt. Bridesmaids were Miss Renee McCullen of Durham, Mrs. Sally Edgerton of Wallace, Mrs. Kathy Curtis of New Bern, Miss Elzbieta Gatowski of Charlotte, and Mrs. Dawn Missory of Chester, Virginia. Their gowns were identical to the matron of honor's.

Pat Missory of Chester, Virginia, served as best man. Jim Popa of Hermitage, Pennsylvania, brother of the groom, and Bob Englebaugh of Greenville, Pennsylvania, Jeff Staul of Mercer, Pennsylvania, Kenny Grozalis of New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, and John Bartko of Hermitage, Pennsylvania, were ushers. Danny Brumleve of Urbana, Illinois, nephew of the bride, served as ring bearer.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Jean West of Warsaw.

A reception was given by the bride's parents at the Country Squire in Kenansville. Mr. and Mrs. Milford Quinn greeted the guests. The cake was served by Mrs. Joan Best and Mrs. Audrey McCullen. Music was provided by the Charlie Albertson Band.

The couple will live in Endicott, New York after a wedding trip to St. Lucia.

Bridal Courtesies

On May 28, a shower was given for the bride by her co-workers in Binghamton, N.Y.

The groom's mother honored the bride-elect at a shower in her home in Hermitage, Pa. on June 9th.

A coffee was given to honor the bride at the Warsaw Presbyterian Church on June 28. The hostesses, friends of the bride and her mother, were Mrs. Mary Helen Powell, Mrs. Joan Best, Mrs. Cathy Lee and Mrs. Lois West.

The groom was honored with a bachelor's party in Owego, N.Y. on July 25 and a pig pickin' in Warsaw on August 1.

Miss Renee McCullen, Mrs. Audrey McCullen and Mrs. Sara Huffman were hostesses for a bachelorette party for the bride at Topsail Beach on August 1.
