Unbeaten W-RH Wins ECC 2-A Title

Homecoming Celebrated By James Kenan Tigers

Vicaria Moore was crowned 1985 Co-Homecoming Queen at James Kenan High School. Vicaria was escorted by Dewayne Chasten. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Moore of Kenansville.

The JK cheerleaders held this sign for the James Kenan Tiger Football Team to break through just before the kick-off of the homecoming game against East Duplin on Friday night. The Tigers won 9-7.

Amy West was crowned 1985 Co-Homecoming Queen at James Kenan High School. She was crowned by Tina Long and escorted by Ray Cooke. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry West of Warsaw

East Central 2-A Football Round-Up

Wallace: The undefeated Wallace-Rose Hill Bulldogs, better known as "Holley's Raiders," clinched their second straight East Central 2-A Conference championship last Friday night in "Death Valley" by stopping the Patriots of Pender 39-14. It was the 10th straight ECC win for Coach Jack Holley's Dawgs and makes them 20-0 in conference since 1983.

Johnny Johnson, the best all-round player in the ECC, rambled for two downs and rushed 199 yards to lead the Bulldog attack. Ricky Brown, another Bulldog, raced for two touchdowns and netted 179 yards at the Wallace-Rose Hill Dawgs posted their second consecutive 10-0 regular season.

In four seasons under Coach Holley, the Bulldogs have compiled a 43-4 record, including one co-crown and one Division II championship. We congratulate Coach Holley, his team and his school on their outstanding accomplishment. Best of luck in the state playoffs.

Warsaw: The James Kenan Tigers put on a real good show for their Homecoming crowd last Friday night with a 9-7 East Central 2-A win over the Panthers of East Duplin. The fighting Tigers trailing 7-6 with just under two minutes left in the game, called on sophomore Chuck Kornegay, and he kicked a 31-yard field goal to give James Kenan the win 9-7. The win also gave Coach Billy Byrd an overall winning season, 6-4. It was the first kick of the season for young Kornegay, and he came through for dear old JK. We want to congratulate the James Kenan team and Coach Byrd and his coaching staff on a fine job this season.

Holiday entertaining can be jollier than you may think. You don't have to worry about providing soft drinks for youngsters and non-drinkers, stronger stuff for others if you turn to tea. Tea can be an excellent base for punch because it combines so well with fruit juices and other flavorings. It can make for some fascinating combinations and is easy to prepare whatever the quantity you need. That way you can sip away with family and friends while you relax and enjoy the holiday spirit: tea.

Duplin Pro Rick Green announces a Superball tournament next Sunday afternoon, Nov. 17, that will highlight the annual membership meeting set for 7 p.m. in the clubhouse. Green says a hamburger cookout is scheduled about 6:30 p.m. and all those interested are invited to attend. Tee time for the golf tournament will be at 1 p.m. Green invited men and women to participate in the activities. "We have about 30 members already signed up to play golf. If you would like to play, call 296-0919 and get your name on the list."

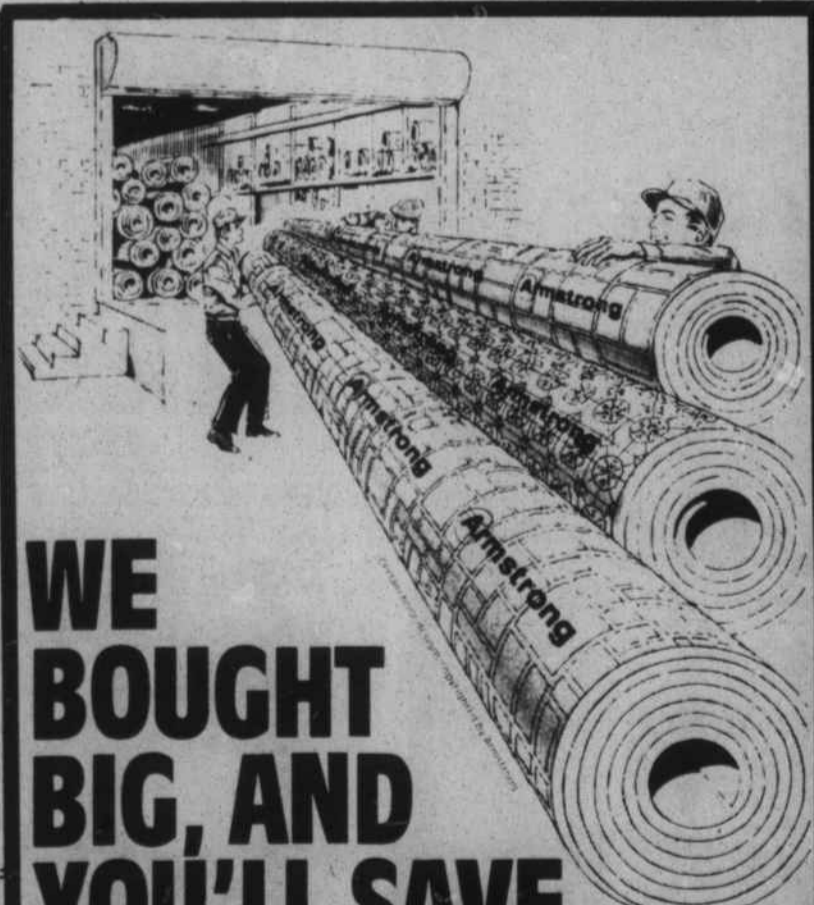

DCC President Jean Stevens urges all members to make plans to attend the annual membership meeting scheduled at the club Sunday, Nov. 17 at 7 p.m. "We need your suggestions and input at the club," Stevens said. The following members are on the board of directors at Duplin, including Stevens: Charlie Sutton, vice president, Mark Vinson, Robert Chestnut, Bob Brumleve, Connie Carlton, Shirley Hutchins, Elwood Revelle and Paul Brewer. These board members need your support, so get out there and tell them how well they are running your club (or what-have-you.)

Bobby Radar Smith and Johnny Fore.

Carlton won the very first Honest John Golf Tournament staged at Lakewood Country Club. Manager Doug Smith says over 30 golfers enjoyed the tourney and the pig-picking, and you are invited to the very next one. See this column for the time.

Club Manager Keith Thigpen announces an 18-hole Superball on tap for Lungmeadow on Sunday, Nov. 24. Tee time is 1 p.m.
