Deaver-Murphy Wed

Myra Joyce Murphy and Richard Allen Deaver were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony on Sunday, November tenth at four o'clock in the Cabin Free Will Baptist Church, Beulaville. The Reverend Orvin B. Everette Jr. officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Murphy of Beulaville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ormond J. Deaver of Seven Springs.

A program of selected music was provided by Miss Alisa Weatherington of Greenville, pianist. Walter Lysterly, violinist, and music teacher of the bride, played "Maiden's Prayer," accompanied by Monica King on guitar. Miss Laurie Weigand of Kinston sang "My Only Love" and "The Wedding Prayer" accompanied by Miss Weatherington. Cindy Grant of Seven Springs, trumpeter, played "Trumpet Voluntary" during the processional. "The Wedding March" was played during the bride's processional.

The couple exchanged their vows before an altar adorned with ferns and candelabras laced with greenery and babies'-breath.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of taffeta which featured a Victorian lace-ruffled bodice of Wedgewood lace and Schiffli embroidery. The gown with fashioned with a drop shoulder yoke and Victorian sleeves. Venise lace medallions accented the bodice and basque waistline. The full skirt was hemmed in rows of lace ruffles extending to a cathedral-length train. She wore an imported hat edged with Schiffli embroidery and etched with pearls. Attached to the center back was a pouf of bridal illusion extending to fingertip-length and dotted with small lace medallions and pearls. The bride carried an old-fashioned nosegay of mixed dried dusty rose and white flowers accented with burgundy rosebuds. The bouquet was adorned with ribbon streamers, lace, and loops of pearls.

Joan Murphy of Beulaville, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of burgundy taffeta featuring a drop-shoulder lace yoke with a ruffled bodice, Victorian neckline and sleeves. Burgundy lace gloves were also worn. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of dried flowers accented with ribbon streamers.

Bridesmaids were; Mrs. Linda Murphy of Sanford, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Sue Smith of New Jersey, sister of the groom; Susan Barwick of Kenansville, Gwen Turner of Albertson, Pam Wilson and Tammy Groves, both of Kinston. The bridesmaids wore gowns and gloves identical to those of the maid of honor and carried similar bouquets.

Erin Murphy of Sanford, niece of the bride, served as flower-girl. She wore a tea-length burgundy taffeta dress designed by the bride, and carried out by Mrs. Linda Murphy. The dress featured long puffed sleeves, a white lace collar, and a hemline of double taffeta ruffles. She wore white lace tights. Her headpiece was a halo of dried flowers and ribbon streamers. She carried a white basket made by the bride, and filled with dried flowers and streamers. Miss Elizabeth Murphy of New York, cousin of the bride; Miss Lela Parker of Kinston, Mrs. Sharon Patterson and Mrs. June Jones, both of Albertson, served as honorary bridesmaids. They wore street-length dresses and carried miniature nosegays of dried flowers.

Mark Deaver of Greenville, nephew of the groom, served as ringbearer. He wore dark grey knickers and a white peasant-style shirt with round collar, all designed by the bride. This was accented by a burgundy cummerbund and tie, along with white tights and a burgundy boutonniere. He carried a heart-shaped bridal satin pillow with a ruffle of Wedgewood lace and ribbons handmade by his mother.

The groom chose a dark grey cut-away tuxedo, white shirt, vest, striped trousers and ascot tie. He wore a dried red rose boutonniere.

Maurice Deaver of Greenville, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Neil Barwick of Kenansville, Randall Murphy of Beulaville, brother of the bride; Paige Murphy of Sanford, brother of the bride; Billy Thompson of Seven Springs, Randy Patterson and Jerie Turner, both of Albertson. They were dressed identically to the groom with similar boutonnieres.

The bride's mother chose a formal gown of rose taffeta with an all-lace overlay.

The groom's mother chose a formal gown of soft blue with a sheer cape. Both wore matching corsages of mixed dried burgundy flowers.

Miss Kim Smith of Kinston, niece of the groom, attended the register. Monica Deaver from Greenville, niece of the groom, distributed programs and burgundy rice roses.

The wedding was officiated by Mrs. Nell Bryan of Fountaintown.

The bride is a registered nurse and works with the Red Cross Blood Services in Greenville.

The groom owns and operates Ricky's Exxon and Muffler Service in Kinston.

After a wedding trip to the Poconos, the couple will reside in Kinston.

Reception

Following the ceremony, an old-fashioned reception was given by the parents of the bride in the church fellowship hall. Lori Stroud, cousin of the bride and her husband, Bryan, greeted the guests.

The punch table was attended by Mrs. Martha Deaver of Greenville, sister-in-law of the groom, and Mrs. Maggie Norris of Beulaville.

Mrs. Nell Bryan and Mrs. Nancy Bryan, both of Fountaintown, prepared and served a variety of foods including a decorative pineapple tray, a vegetable tray, assorted meat and cheese hors d'oeuvres, as well as a variety of open-faced sandwiches, cherry tarts and other sweet dainties.

Background music was provided by Walter Lysterly, violinist, accompanied by Monica King, guitarist.

Good-byes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Richard James of Ohio.

Other Courtesies

On September 29th, the bride-elect was honored with a lingerie shower given by Mrs. Gwen Turner and Mrs. Sharon Patterson at the home of Mrs. Turner.

A miscellaneous shower was given by friends and family of the bride hosted by Mrs. Lura Pellitier, Miss Tammy Groves, Miss Joan Murphy, Mrs. Linda Murphy and Mrs. Nell Bryan on October 5th.

On Oct. 26th, a bridesmaid's brunch was given by Mrs. Susan Barwick, Mrs. June Jones and Miss Pam Wilson at Zachary's restaurant in Kinston.

Also on Oct. 26th, the Red Cross Nursing Staff honored the bride with a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Betty Albertson.

Friends and family of the groom honored the couple with a miscellaneous shower on Oct. 27th.

On Nov. 2nd, Mrs. Clyda Creech and Miss Lela Parker entertained with a bridesmaids luncheon at the home of Mrs. Creech.

A pig-pickin' at Albertson Community Building was given by parents of the groom prior to the rehearsal. After the rehearsal the bride honored the wedding party with refreshments and chose this time to present gifts. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. Sharon Patterson and Mrs. Nancy Bryan. Miss Lela Parker served punch.
