

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT.*Adams Convicted Second Time—
Other Cases Tried.

Raymond D. Bynum was formally arraigned in the Wake Superior Court Thursday afternoon for the murder of Mr. J. H. Alford and the case continued until the March term, counsel for the defense being allowed to enter a plea of not guilty with the privilege of striking out this plea and pleading the mental incapacity of the prisoner to go on trial, or to put in such other plea as counsel may deem necessary.

Annie Brown, the white woman charged with murdering her infant, submitted to murder in the second degree and was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. She was taken to that institution at once.

B. W. Young pleaded guilty of assault with deadly weapon and paid the costs in the case.

Ruffin Holderfield, for trespass, was found guilty and sentenced to four months on the county roads.

Herbert Chavic was convicted of criminal negligence in frightening a horse being driven by W. H. Stevenson and the judge has his sentence under advisement.

A case against Ivan Edwards for cruelty to animals by abusing a steer was continued for the term.

Frank Upechurch was acquitted of the charge of stealing a bicycle from Will Allen.

Lee Williams was sent to the roads for four months for the larceny of a pair of shoes from Pool's shoe store.

Jno. Hubbard was convicted of larceny of a pocket book from W. H. Faison, and judgment reserved.

Arthur Stewart, a fourteen-year-old negro, was sentenced to seven years on the county roads for an attempt to break into the residence of M. Z. Price, near Rolesville.

An order was made excusing the witnesses in the case against J. J. Markham for obstructing a cartway from appearance until Monday.

John Andrews, colored, was convicted of assault with a deadly weapon and judgment was reserved.

Robert Barnwell was sent to the roads four months for stealing a plate of oranges from Bragassas' store.

Junius Morgan was sent to the roads ten months for obtaining flour under false pretense.

Will Adams, charged with murder, was tried the second time Friday and Saturday. The jury was out Saturday night and returned a verdict of guilty Sunday morning. Later he was sentenced to be hung March 16th. It is understood that his attorneys will again appeal the case to the Supreme Court.

Burley Mangum was put on trial and acquitted of the charge of cruelty to animals.

Charles Burch was found guilty of assault with deadly weapon.

Will Brown, alias Boot Mitchell, entered a plea of guilty of the charge of stealing a satchel and a sum of money belonging to Mrs. C. H. Gattis from the refreshment department of the State Fair. He was sentenced to one year on the roads.

George Wilson, who was being held on the charge of gambling, was discharged from custody on the condition that he would leave the county. He had a loathsome disease and it was deemed not advisable to hold him in jail longer.

Frank Thompson was sent to the roads one year for stealing a revolver.

Rebecca Bullock, the girl who was held for secreting the birth of a child, was discharged on the ground that she had not knowingly committed any crime.

An order was made allowing further time for Receivers Barbee and Daniels to report the sale of the Juanita Cotton Mill property.

On petition to the court by A. J.

PHOTOGRAPHS

AND

PHONOGRAPHS

HAYES,

THE PHOTOGRAPHER

will make you PHOTOS and finish them in Best Style at

PRICES TO PLEASE YOU

Why pay so much when you can get them Just as Good for half the money.

WORK
GUAR-ANTEED.

WILL NEVER FADE.

"A ROSE BY ANY OTHER NAME SMELLS JUST AS SWEET,"

So HAYES' Photos are as good as any you can get.

Agent for EDISON PHONOGRAPHS, Records and Supplies of All Kinds.

Large Horns at Lowest Price. Wholesale and Retail. Can get you any Record at any time.

Yours for Photos or Phonographs and Supplies,

HAYES,

124½ Fayetteville Street. Right side coming from the Capitol.