

Young Man, Beware!

We are indebted to one of our young lady readers in Harnett County for the following warning to young men, reduced to rhyme:

The man who takes the red, red wine
Can never glue his lips to mine.
The man who chews the navy plug
Will in our parlor get no hug.
Who smokes, drinks or cuts a deck
Shall never, never bite my neck.
Don't you monkey with the cards,
Or we never more can be pards.
The man who guzzles lager beer,
Can never, never chew my ear.
Drink nothing stronger than red pop,
Or in your lap I'll never flop.
If aught but water you ever taste
Just keep your arms off my waist.
If you drink wine or other slop,
You can never hear my corset pop.
The man who smokes a "cigarette,"
Can never squeeze me you can bet.

Joe Folk's Wisdom.

Governor Joe Folk, of Missouri, is an epigrammatian of the purest ray serene. At a banquet given in his honor in New York recently he handed out these gems:

"The Missouri idea means the enforcement of law, and if that law be bad, the remedy is to repeal, not to ignore it."

"Disregard of one law breeds disrespect for all laws broken."

"Good men will observe even bad laws, but bad men will break even good laws. It should be that all men good and bad, be compelled to keep all law, good and bad, because it is the law."

"The patriotism of peace is just as necessary as the patriotism of war. The patriotism of the ballot is even more necessary in a free country than the patriotism of the bullet."

"Plenty of men will die for their country, but the man who will live for his city and State every day is the man the government needs."

"The government never neglects the people unless the people first neglect the government."

"No government, city, State or National, was ever better than the people made it, or worse than they suffered it to become."

"Good citizens make good laws, but no law can make good citizens."

"States and cities do not consist of mortar and brick and stone, but of the character of their citizenship."—Houston Post.

A Cleveland genius has invented a contrivance to prevent women from stepping off backward when they leave street cars. This is good work. We hope the inventor will now turn his attention to the business of inventing some kind of a device that will keep fools from rocking boats.—Chicago Record-Herald.

SAVED BY DYNAMITE.

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes a cough hangs on so long you feel as if nothing but dynamite could cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her, so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for Bronchitis and La Grippe. At all druggists; price 50 cents and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.
