

Local Matters.

Supreme Court will probably adjourn Saturday.

Work has started on the new bank building at Apex.

The S. A. L. will run an excursion to Norfolk on the 14th of June.

Surveyors are now at work on the survey for the electric line from Raleigh to Durham.

The Osman Stock Company is giving good shows at the Academy every night this week.

Federal Court will meet in this city June 5th, having been postponed to that date.

The Hillsboro Street Christian Church Sunday-school picnicked at Fuquay Springs yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Williams, a leading merchant and lumber man at Angier, was in the city Saturday.

The State Insurance Department has moved into the Haywood building, corner of Fayetteville and Morgan streets.

The Vanderbilt estate at Biltmore has sent a dozen fine chrysanthemum plants to be placed in the grounds at the Governor's mansion.

The Glenwood Land Company will ask the city to grade and widen Saunders street for the new car line to be extended along that street.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stokes, who died Monday night, was buried at Inwood Church about four miles from the city, Tuesday.

Mr. W. H. Bostwick, the well known brick manufacturer at Banks, was in the city Saturday. He reports a large and growing business.

Hubert King, a brakeman on the S. A. L., got his foot crushed recently and had to have it amputated. The operation was performed at Rex Hospital.

Mr. S. H. Carroll, aged 70 years, who was paralyzed a few days ago, died in this city Friday. The remains were carried to Garner, his old home for burial.

Col. F. A. Olds, the well known newspaper correspondent, has returned from a trip to Texas and Mexico, where he hunted jack rabbits and other big game.

Alice Hunter, colored, insane, of St. Mary's township, has been placed in Wake County jail until there is room for her at the Goldsboro asylum for colored people.

Mr. C. B. Utter, foreman of the Seaboard Air Line shops here, has resigned his position, and the place is being filled temporarily by Mr. John Sasser, of this city.

Miss Rena May, daughter of Mr. S. C. Coley, of Milbrook, was married to Mr. Edward C. Garrard, of South Boston, Va., by Elder P. D. Gold, of Wilson, last Thursday.

The many friends of Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith will be glad to learn that he has recovered sufficiently from his operation for appendicitis to be removed to his home on Halifax street.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Halford, of Chalybeate Springs, were in Raleigh Monday. Dr. Halford has built up a splendid practice in the northern part of Harnett County, and his friends here are pleased to learn of his success.

Mr. W. P. Batchelor, manager of the dispensary, and Mr. Tim Mangum had a few words about the cashing of a check in front of that institution Saturday afternoon. Mr. Batchelor struck Mr. Mangum several times with a cane and then a policeman interfered. Judge Badger fined Batchelor $5 and costs in his court Monday.

The five months old infant of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Montague died at Garner yesterday at 11 a. m.

The Enterprise will go to 28 new subscribers this week. The circulation is growing and nearly all subscribers renew when their time is out.

A cute little monkey and a large African baboon have been placed in the Pullen Park zoo. A new cage has been built and the two foreign gentlemen will occupy it, being separated by a partition.

The Harnett County people are talking of having a big celebration next month in honor of the 50th anniversary of the county, it being formed from a part of Cumberland in 1855. A very good idea, we think.

All the bids for building the addition to the Central Hospital in this city were found too high when opened, all going above the $40,000 appropriated for the purpose. The architect will revise the plans and new bids will be invited.

Messrs. W. H. Hood and L. D. Terrell, list takers for Raleigh township, have fitted up their office opposite the sheriff's office in the court house preparatory to beginning the work of listing the taxes which begins the first of June.

Mr. W. R. Crawford, Jr., of this city, and Miss Elizabeth C. Kirby, of Goldsboro, will be married in that city June 1st. Miss Kirby is a daughter of the late Dr. G. L. Kirby, formerly Superintendent of the Central Hospital for Insane in this city.

Alfred J. Templeton, son of Dr. J. M. Templeton, won the debator's medal at the closing of Cary High School last week. This school is a great success, 175 students having been enrolled during the past session, 52 being from outside of Wake County.

There were two fights in front of the dispensary instead of one Saturday afternoon. Mr. J. H. Pool, an employe of the dispensary, struck Mr. Archie Caudle one or more times. Mr. Pool claims that he thought Caudle was going to strike Mr. Batchelor, while Caudle says his mission was that of peacemaker. Each were fined $3.50 by Judge Badger yesterday.

No Help in Sight.

The decision of the Supreme Court at Raleigh yesterday, sustaining the act of the Legislature in reference to bucket shops, puts an effectual ban upon another line of business. There can be no blind tiger bucket shops, and in this case Salisbury can't help us out.—Charlotte Observer.

CLEARER FOR ACTION.

When the body is cleared for action, by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. At all druggists; 25 cents.
