

ON TO LOUISVILLE, KY., VIA SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

General J. S. Carr has selected the Southern Railway via Asheville, Knoxville and Harriman Junction as the official route for his Veterans' Special, consisting of first-class day coaches and Pullmans to be handled through from Raleigh to Louisville without change. This special will leave Raleigh 3.30 p. m., Monday, June 12th, and the route is through the grand and lofty mountain regions of Western North Carolina, East Tennessee and the beautiful blue grass section of Kentucky.

Tickets should read Southern Railway to Harriman Junction, Q. & C., to Burgin and Southern Railway to Louisville.

It is the intention of the management of the Southern Railway to make this a most pleasant trip for every one.

Round trip rate from Raleigh is $13.60; proportionately low rates from all other points.

For Pullman reservation tickets or any other information, please address the undersigned.
