Rev. Needham B. Cobb, well known in Raleigh, died in Sampson County day before yesterday.

Mr. Henry Berwanger, of Winston, a brother of Mr. S. Berwanger, of Raleigh, is visiting here.

Mrs. J. C. Upchurch, of Durham, died in this city Monday. She came here to be operated on for cancer.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith died Tuesday at their home, 550 E. Jones street, aged four months.

The Williams Milling Company has been incorporated. The object is to conduct a lumber business at Angier.

The fences have been extended at the Union Station, and it is now possible to close the gates on much longer trains than heretofore.

Mrs. Mary Lawrence, who lives two miles from the city, has a painful wound made by stepping on a needle, which went almost through her foot.

Rev. J. C. Masee, pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, delivered the Memorial Day address in this city Tuesday. Mr. A. B. Forest read an interesting poem.

Mrs. Susan Stuart died Saturday at the residence of Mr. C. G. Whiting, No. 11 Sanders Street. She was seventy-eight years of age, and an excellent woman.

Central Methodist Sunday-school ran an excursion to Chalybeate Springs Tuesday. A good crowd went and spent a pleasant day, but for the intense heat.

Josh Wilder, the negro arrested at Franklinton charged with cutting a colored woman here some time ago, has been brought here and is in jail in default of a bond for $500.

Wake Forrest College, Wendell Academy, Wakefield High School, Garner and other schools in this vicinity, closed during the past few days with interesting exercises.

Mr. C. E. Bellman and Miss Willie Mitchell were married Tuesday night at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. J. H. Mitchell, on Oakwood Avenue, by Rev. Murdock W. Butler.

Saturday night about 12 o'clock a rifle ball crashed through the wall at the residence of Mrs. L. H. Dement, 511 South Salisbury Street, striking Miss Florence Dement just over the heart inflicting a slight bruise and giving her a bad scare. The bullet was almost spent after passing through the wall, or the consequences would have been serious. The gun was fired some distance away, and it evidently was not the intention of the shooter to strike that house.

Death of Mr. Senter.

Mr. J. A. Senter died at Chalybeate Springs Saturday at the ripe age of 83. Mr. Senter had been sick since September, but his condition did not take a fatal turn until Saturday, when he had an attack of acute indigestion and the end soon came.

Mr. Senter left three sons and two daughters to mourn their loss. He had lived all his life in the locality where he died, and was highly esteemed. A large number of people attended the funeral Sunday. Masonic funeral will be held at a later date.

NO SECRET ABOUT IT.

It is no secret, that for Cuts, Burns, Ulcers, Fever, Sores, Sore Eyes Boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory, of Hope, Texas. Twenty-five cents at all druggists.
