

STATE NEWS.

A camp for 2,000 yellow fever refugees is to be located near Asheville.

The first bale of new cotton for this State was ginned in Anson County last week. It sold for 10.55.

A couple, each 75 years old, have just married in Wayne County. Parents should not permit such marriages.

Mr. W. C. Moye, of Greenville, was killed at a lumber plant there by his clothing coming in contact with a revolving shaft.

Prof. O. W. Carr died at his home at Trinity last Sunday of asthma. He was for many years a prominent insurance agent.

The Wilmington Board of Health Saturday issued an order prohibiting the entry of rice or any other freight from New Orleans into that city.

Farmers say the recent heavy rains have damaged cotton badly. Excessive shedding and rust are the things most complained of, says the Wadesboro Messenger.

Lightning struck the barn of Dr. H. M. Brooks, of New Salem township, on Monday of last week, and the doctor's horse was instantly killed by the stroke, says Our Home.

Walter K. Fountain, a stranger from Brooklyn, N. Y., died suddenly at a boarding-house in New Bern Sunday. He was a consumptive, and was traveling in quest of health.

Nat crump, the negro convicted in Davidson Superior Court of shooting Clay Grubb and Clarence Thompson from ambush, was sentenced to eight years in the penitentiary.

Some one, on last Sunday was a week ago, went into Mr. J. G. Huffman's house, while the family was away at church, and stole $7.50 and took a yellow pocket book, says the Hickory Mercury.

The Cranberry Inn, a well known hotel in the Western North Carolina mountains, three-quarters of a mile from Cranberry, was destroyed by fire last week causing a loss of $20,000, with no insurance.

Charlie Childress, 11 years old, of Surry County, was working with an old pistol and looking into the muzzle while he worked. The doctors got the ball out of the back part of his head but he died a week later.

Ed. Hall, colored, who attempted to criminally assault Mrs. Auten in Mecklenburg County a few weeks ago, was tried in Mecklenburg Superior Court last week and sentenced to seven years in the State's prison.

Dr. A. C. Barron, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Charlotte, died at Somerset, Va., Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock. The body reached Charlotte Sunday night and was interred there Monday afternoon.

Governor Glenn is to visit Fayetteville on the 25th of this month and make an address to the negroes. Prof. E. E. Smith, the head of the colored normal school, says that he expects 10,000 negroes there then to hear his Excellency.

New Bern has established a rigid quarantine against all vessels hailing from fever-stricken ports. Yellow fever raged in New Bern during the Civil War. The Federal cemetery there is filled, it is said, with victims of the fearful scourge.

Mr. Hurley Bivins, of Anson County, tells the Monroe Enquirer that there is a school district in his section in which there are 60 white children of school age and not a colored person lives in the district. The father of every child in this district owns the land on which he lives and does not owe a cent. This is a remarkable statement.

Four boys left Charlotte on a tramp a few days ago. When near Greenville, S. C., they sat down upon the railroad to rest, fell asleep and a train ran over them killing three. One escaped unhurt.

S. L. Hines, of Wallburg, dropped in our sanctum Monday and said he had lost one of his fine horses. The cause of its death is not known. He valued the horse at $100, says the Lexington North State.

The Greensboro Record says a car of lime was standing on the tracks at the Pomona shifting yards Friday when the rain leaked through the roof and started a fire that destroyed the car with its contents.

Wilkesboro Chronicle: Mr. Joines, at the jail, after eating a fine plump peach the other day, cracked the seed and found to his surprise, not the sign of a kernel, but a spider and web. Now, how do you explain that?

The Southern Railway has received at the shops at Spencer 60 of the largest locomotives ever brought there. They weigh about 150 tons each. The 60 cost $980,000. Fifty of them will be used for freight and ten for passenger service.

The Wadesboro Messenger mentions that two children who died of whooping-cough were buried the same day in that town recently, and that six or seven deaths have resulted from the disease in that community in the past few months.

In a street fight at Kinston, Mr. Isaac Rochelle cut Will Borden, colored, pretty badly on face and head, but he is not seriously injured. Borden knocked Mr. Rochelle down and was advancing on him when he arose and began cutting him out of business.

Mrs. Elvira Austin, aged 90 years, died Saturday at her home in Mocksville. For 50 years she conducted the Kelly Hotel, which was burned last December. Up to this time she had been remarkably active, but the shock is believed to have hastened her death.

Mr. Rufus Harmon, of Kernersville, shows the News some samples of North Carolina hard wood that he is carving into likenesses of animals. The carving denotes the work of a genius and it will be placed on exhibition at the Jamestown Exposition two years hence.

L. T. Summer, a brakeman on west-bound freight No. 73, was run over early Saturday morning near the station at Statesville and received injuries which resulted in his death three hours later. The train was shifting at the station when Summer fell from the box car.

In Orange County last Tuesday, at the home of a colored family named Page, the father and mother went away and left at home a boy aged 9 and a girl aged 7. The boy got down a shotgun and while handling it the weapon was discharged, blowing the little girl's head off and killing her instantly.

Maj. William Haymore died last week at his home near Mt. Airy, aged 97. He was sheriff of Surry for 18 years, and had represented the county in the Legislature. In early life he made two trips to the West, riding to Indiana on horseback. His wife died some time ago, and he had no children. All his property was left to the Baptist Orphanage at Thomsville.

The Route to Baltimore.

Go to Norfolk by rail, then get aboard one of the palatial steamers operated by the Baltimore Steam Packet Company. Boats leave Norfolk daily, except Sunday, at 6.30 p. m., arrive at Baltimore at 7 next morning. Safe and pleasant trip. The boats have all the conveniences of a modern hotel.

Late General News.

An airship made a successful fly at New York yesterday, being guided in any direction.

J. B. Roth, an American, was robbed of several thousands in cash and jewelry in Berlin. Another case of a fool and his money.

In the race for Senator in Virginia, the primaries being held this week, Senator Martin beat Governor Montague by 15,000, and Mann fell much further behind.

To date there have been more than fifteen hundred cases of yellow fever at New Orleans, and about 250 deaths. It is no worse than typhoid fever, but more contagious.

F. A. Peckham, of New York, accused of taking part in the leak of cotton statistics from the Agricultural Department at Washington, was arrested at Saratoga, N. Y., yesterday and went to jail in default of a bond for $12,000.

Letter from Garner.

Correspondence of the Enterprise. Two cases before the mayor for being drunk and disorderly; each fined $10 and costs.

The Baptist held a revival here for several days with much success.

Mr. W. I. Williams, at Rand's Mills, who has been confined to his room for several weeks with typhoid fever, is out again.

Messrs. Wm. Sanderford and J. Carl Goodwin were very successful at fox hunting last week. They caught two between Auburn and Neuse River.

Mr. A. M. Price and Miss Myrtle Wrenn were joined together in the holy bonds of wedlock the 21st inst.

The new cotton crop is opening very fast in this section.

Miss Minnie Moring, of Durham, is visiting her father, W. L. Moring, of Garner. C. H. W.

Garner, N. C., August 23rd.

Letter from Clayton.

Correspondence of the Enterprise. Miss Rosalie Patterson, of Greensboro, is the guest of Mrs. Jessie Hilliard.

We regret to note that Mr. D. L. Barnes still continues quite sick.

A number of our merchants are in Northern markets this week stocking up for the big trade that is due to come their way.

Mrs. Jno. W. Harden and children, of Raleigh, are visiting Mrs. Chas. W. Horne.

Miss Grace Rogers and Miss Swannanoa Horne are spending a few days with Miss Foy Baucum near Auburn.

We will have a Jew store here after September 1st. Such things must and will come where money's flush.

Prohibition after this week. Watch it and see how much better.

"NO-ONE."

Cayton, N. C., August 23rd.

The plumbers who went on a strike in Greensboro because their employer wanted one of them to ride a bicycle to a hurry job of work, have all returned to work, but the difference has not been entirely settled.

Smoke Fisher's Kismet cigar. Union made.

SPEND YOUR VACATION IN THE MOUNTAINS OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Among the most delightful summer resort places in the world. Lake Toxaway, Lake Fairfield, Lake Sapphire, Mt. Toxaway, Brevard, Asheville, Biltmore, Hot Springs, Waynesville, Statesville. These offer you the best-appointed hotels and excellent boarding-houses.

Are you weary of the city's din and discord? Come to these grand old mountains and find peace and quiet. Are your spirits jaded, your energies at low ebb? Come up near to Nature's heart; tramp the hills, fish the streams, and feel the new red blood moving in you. Then, at evening, sit and watch the serene blue hills, till there comes stealing o'er you that scund, refreshing sleep, which "knits the raveled edge of care."

Are you concerned about a failing appetite? Two weeks up here will transfer the alarm to your landlord.

Come up here where the air is a cordial, and the whole glorious scene a wine of stimulation; where health and good spirits are contagious, and where living is a joy.

Call on nearest Ticket Agent for Description Summer Home folder, or address,

T. E. GREEN, C. T. A., Raleigh, N. C.

WEEK-END RATES TO SEACOAST AND MOUNTAIN RESORTS VIA SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

Effective Saturday, June 3rd, the Southern Railway announces sale of Week End tickets to following points at rates named:

Asheville	$7.00
Black Mountain	$6.45
Round Knob	$6.20
Marion	$5.85
Morganton	$5.30
Connelly Springs	$5.25
Hickory	$5.25
Taylorsville	$5.80
Tryon	$7.50
Hendersonville	$7.75
Brevard	$8.50
Lake Toxaway	$9.20
Hot Springs	$7.75
Shelby	$5.80
Rutherfordton	$6.45
Lincolnton	$5.25
Cliffs	$5.30
Lenoir	$5.30
Rural Hall	$3.95
Chase City	$3.15
Clarksville	$2.70
Morehead City	$4.50
Wilmington	$4.50

Tickets will be sold Saturdays and forenoon trains Sundays, good returning leaving destination not later than Monday following date of sale, except to Chase City and Clarksville tickets will be sold Saturdays only; Morehead City tickets will be sold Saturdays only and limited returning Tuesday following date of sale.

T. E. GREEN, C. T. A., Raleigh, N. C.

The highway of holiness is along the commonest road of life—along your very way. In wind and rain, no matter how it beats, it is only going hand in hand with Him.—Mark Guy Pearse.

The Fisher cigars are rapidly becoming popular.

RELIABLE GROCERIES

Are the kind we sell and that means much to the customer. Inferior or adulterated goods are injurious to health. We exercise care in selecting stock. : : : : : Fine Hams and Water Ground Meal. Let us have your order. : : : : :

J. B. GREEN CO.,

No. 9 E. Hargett St., RALEIGH, N. C.