

Two Captured.

Sonnie Rogers and Charles Emerson, both colored, and charged with cheating and stealing, have been arrested in the past few days for crimes in the past.

It is alleged that Rogers stole a suit of clothes from the Express office six years ago. He was arrested but got away from the officer at the time. Emerson cheated a farmer out of $9.25 here last year in a make-change transaction. Both will be tried for the offenses charged.

Alleged Rapist Arrested.

John Munroe, a negro about 26 years old, was arrested at the farm of Mr. L. D. Castleberry, about five miles west of this city, Sunday night. Policeman McRary, John U. Smith and Carev Maynard made the capture.

It is said that Munroe outraged a fifteen-year-old girl at Southern Pines more than a year ago, and has eluded the officers ever since. He was finally located as a tenant on Mr. Castleberry's farm, and the sheriff of Monroe County requested that the arrest be made. He was taken to Carthage and will be held for trial.

Pat's Objection.

Patrick had been called as a witness, and as he sat in the court-room he noticed that a man was frowning at him.

"Who is that?" whispered Pat to his friend.

"The man who is about to question you? He is the cross-examiner." Patrick frowned himself.

"The cross-examiner? Bedad, can't they git a mon thot is in a good humor?"

Strong Defense.

"Oi hav to appear in court to-day. Nora," said Mr. O'Toole, as he carefully shaved his chin. Yez know Oi done up O'Brien last week."

"In court?" gasped Nora, dropping her spoon. "Oh, Patrick, hav yez inny defnse?"

"Oi hav five, Nora."
"Five lawyers, Patrick?"
"No; four fingers an' a thumb doubled up."

Death of Mr. O. M. Minor.

Mr. O. M. Minor, Secretary of Pilot Cotton Mills, died at his residence on Oakwood Avenue Sunday night after a brief illness.

Only a few days previous he was bitten on his lip by some insect, probably a mosquito, and blood poison resulted, causing his death.

Mr. Minor was an excellent citizen and had the confidence of his friends and business associates, and his untimely death is much regretted.

Mr. Green's New Location.

Mr. R. L. Green, the sewing-machine man, has moved his Wilmington Street store to No. 11 West Hargett Street, occupying the store recently vacated by Weathers & Utley. The location is good, and the building is a desirable one. The store at 126 Fayetteville Street will be continued.

Mr. Green is one of the most energetic and successful sewing-machine men in the State, and it is a pleasure to note his continuous progress.

Every man owes it to himself and his family to master a trade or profession. Read the display advertisement of the six Morse Schools of Telegraphy, in this issue and learn how easily a young man or lady may learn telegraphy and be assured a position.
