

Local Matters

The Wake Forest road business ended in smoke after all the big row.

Dewey Pollard, aged eight years, died in this city early Wednesday morning.

A slight freight wreck occurred at Morrisville Friday morning. The damage was not great.

The school and the Junior Order at Garner have rebuilt the school building there which was recently destroyed.

Mr. James E. Chandler, of Sanford, Fla., and Miss Jane Davis, of this city, were married here last Wednesday night, June 26th.

Brick-laying on the walls of the Masonic Temple began Monday. If any other town gets the Temple the said town will have to remove part of the walls.

Will Walters, colored, was before Justice Badger last Thursday for being drunk and disorderly. He said he wanted to go to jail, and he went for thirty days.

Frank Simpson has been chosen Chief of Fire Department. Dr. C. O. Abernethy will be city physician and W. B. Snow will succeed himself as city attorney.

Officers from the Raleigh headquarters broke up several distilleries in Moore County last week. Bud Bryant, one of the alleged blockaders, was arrested.

Mr. J. R. S. Neal, who lives near Swift Creek, south of the city, says he has a fine crop of both corn and cotton. He is one of the few who are not crying poor crops.

Mr. Thomas C. Lanier, a well-known carpenter, died in this city Wednesday morning at 3.30 o'clock at his home, corner Peace and Lenoir Streets. He was a good citizen.

The eight thousand people who were outside of the corporate limits of this city a few days ago are now citizens of Raleigh. They will have to share our joys as well as our sorrows.

The buggy horse of Sanitary Inspector Sale was shot Monday. It broke one of its legs Sunday at the city farm and it was necessary to kill it to prevent future suffering, as it could not recover.

Mr. W. N. Hutt, State Horticulturist of this city and Miss Edith P. Kerr, of Detroit, Michigan, were married in that city last Monday. They will arrive here next week and will live at 426 Jones Street.

A colored man by the name of Upchurch, who has been a switchman at Johnson Street Station for several years was found dead in a car on the S. A. L. yards Sunday. It is thought that he died from some form of heart disease.

Mr. Lon C. Penny, a well-known and industrious farmer living near McCullers, this county, has sold four one-horse loads of green peaches in Raleigh lately, getting about $150 for them. He has more to sell. That sounds curious when the crop has been almost a failure, but it is true.

A mule owned by Dr. L. P. Sorrell at Six Forks, this county, was stabbed by some one Saturday night while on the way home from Raleigh. It will probably get well. It was being driven by Robert Thompson and his son at the time the stabbing is supposed to have occurred.

Postmaster Briggs has appointed Mr. Claude C. Council Assistant Postmaster here to succeed Mr. Lester F. Butler, who has been assistant postmaster. The reasons for the change have not yet been announced. However, it is supposed that the removal of Mr. Butler was due to recent political friction.

Look Up Your Old Papers.

The issue of the Raleigh Enterprise for February 20, 1907, ran short and we have but one copy left. We know that a number of subscribers save the paper, and it is possible that a few have that date. If so, please bring or send them to this office, and we will pay a reasonable price for a few copies of that date.

"I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night.
