

Local Matters

A young son of Mr. Fred Staudt fell and broke his arm Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Pink Pope, of East Durham, is visiting his uncle, Mr. J. W. Pope, on R. F. D. No. 4, Raleigh.

Mr. Charles B. King, of this city, and Miss Nettie Pennington, were married at Warsaw yesterday.

Harvey Curtis, a colored drayman, was badly injured Wednesday of last week when his horse ran away.

Mrs. Carrie Nation spoke at Pullen Park twice on Monday. An enthusiastic, but dry audience, heard her.

Cary Mason, an alleged notorious blockader living in Chatham County, was arrested by Deputy Marshal Jordan Friday.

A barn owned by Mr. Robert Tyson, who lives between Sanders Street and Boylan Avenue, was burned yesterday afternoon. Loss, about $100.

The four-year-old son of Mr. Herbert Rambeau fell from a fence Tuesday afternoon and his hip-bone was broken. He was carried to the hospital.

The matter of extending the street car lines and building new ones has been agreed upon by the Board of Aldermen and the Street Car Company.

Mr. Jesse Winborn, formerly of Wake County, lately of Elon College, died at that place Tuesday night, aged seventy-five. He was a good citizen.

Mr. Richard E. Crabtree, a well-known book-binder, died in this city Tuesday morning. He was about fifty-six years of age, and is survived by a wife.

Prof. J. E. Dowd, of Leesville, has been elected principal of the new high school at Garner. The new $2,500 school building there will soon be completed.

Mr. Emmett B. Cain, son of Mr. J. F. Cain, died in this city yesterday of malarial fever. He was twenty-five years old, and was an industrious, useful young man.

Walter Parker, colored, a railroad hand, while drunk, insulted Mr. Ed Barbee Monday. Mr. Barbee knocked him down. Parker was later fined $28.15 in the police court.

On Monday afternoon Alonzo Bird, aged twenty-five, a colored man, was drowned near the State Hospital while swimming in Walnut Creek, where the water was about sixteen feet deep.

Two negroes, Peter Utley and Henry Kennedy, both of House Creek Township, were bound over for court by Justice of the Peace Separk yesterday on the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

The King-Marsh Company of this city has been chartered. George Marsh is president and treasurer, R. W. King vice-president and E. B. Crow secretary. It will do a wholesale grocery and fruit business.

Mr. I. N. Hobgood, a well-known merchant at Fuquay Springs, is selling a new churn that is remarkable for its simplicity and for the easy and quick work it performs. Evidently it is superior to anything of the kind on the market.

John Henry Bullock, said to be an old offender against the revenue laws, was arrested here Monday by Deputy Marshal Jordan. John was from Franklin County and had evaded the officers for a long time, but when an excursion headed this way it brought him, and that was his undoing.

Death of Mr. Woolcott.

Mr. William Woolcott, a prominent citizen and business man, died at Rex Hospital in this city Friday afternoon at 5:50 after a long illness.

Mr. Woolcott was born in London, England, and was about sixty-seven years of age. He came to this country when he was thirty years of age and had lived in Raleigh for more than thirty years, being in the mercantile business.

He left a wife, two sons, Messrs. Walter and Fred Woolcott, and a daughter, Mrs. J. C. Ellington.

Hunting for Trouble.

I've lived in California for 20 years, and still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains, or a case of piles that Bucklen's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters, of Alleghany, Sierra Co. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed at all Druggists. 25 cents.
