Successful Land Company

The Southern Land Auction Co., of Asheville, had a very successful sale of the Academy property at Landrum, last Saurday. The property brought fair prices. The sale approximated $20,000. Mr C R Moore personally supervised the sale, which made it a success. Mr Moore has built up the largest land business in the South by his fair and square dealing. Nothing succeeds like success. This firm has had ten successful land sales in this vicinity within the last year. The News has carried ads and done business with them for over a year and has always found them to be fair and square. No, dear one, this is not an ad, only an appreciation of one business man to another.
