

The Widow's Mite

Her boy --- her sole support --- in France fighting YOUR battle.
A bitter fight for existence makes rougher the already rough path of old age.

Yet out of her meager funds she finds one dollar a week with which to purchase a Liberty Bond.

You --- who hesitatg --- should be shamed into action by the thought that there are thousands of Mothers who are making such sacrifices each day in order that we may continue to enjoy the blessed boon of
