F. B. Makepeace and Mrs. Makepeace, after spending the summer in Connecticut, have returned to their home in Tryon, N. C., and Mr. Makepeace is ready to resume his duties as pastor of the Episcopal church as soon as the epidemic of Spanish flu is over.

Strong returned home after a visit to friends at Burnsville, N. C., with his wife, Mrs. Strong, who was accompanied by Miss Curtis, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is the guest of Mrs. Strong for a few weeks. Miss Curtis is well in Tryon.

Frank McFarland is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. William Garrison of New York, informing him that the ashes of her husband would be shipped to Tryon to be buried in the cemetery. But no details of the date of death were mentioned.

Emma McFarland left for Erwin, Tenn., a few days ago, upon receipt of a letter stating that her sister there was dangerously ill. Upon her arrival the sister lived but a short time. Miss Emma telegraphed her brother, Mr. F. K. McFarland, left for Erwin, Wednesday morning.

F. F. Searles and Mrs. Searles at Atlanta, soon to reside, where Searles is to manage the business of the so-called reconstruction teaching maimed and disabled veterans some remunerative occupation. Like so much of the war work available volunteers, it will be eternally unremunerative to Mr. Searles, financially.

Mrs. Gray heard that her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Freeman, died in a terrible explosion last week at South Amboy, N. J., fled to Philadelphia with her infant. Two friends with the influenza were unwell and she had been in the hospital for some time, and her situation was not strong enough to undergo the dread disease. The remains were laid to rest at Columbus on Monday, at 4 o'clock p. m. We extend sympathy to the bereaved parents and relatives.

We hope our friends will appreciate the fact that we are in the midst of the greatest campaign for money since that the world has ever seen, and that the greater portion of our space is being used for that purpose, and not to be disappointed if any article sent us for publication does not appear. Remember we are surrounded by iron clad gates that makes it impossible to run a paper as we would like to. Also there are but two of us in the NEWS office, and if you expect any articles to appear don't wait until Wednesday or Thursday to send it in if you are in possession of it on Monday. We are doing the best possible under our terrible handicap, and that that our friends will do all they can to aid us instead of hindering us.

BELGIAN RELIEF

It is a pity that everyone could not see Polk county's response to the call for relief for the people of Belgium and the occupied portions of France!

"Every county does as well in proportion, the Belgians will be as well dressed as we are!" said a man, as he breathed with carrying packages Wilkins' stairs.

So many gave, so many helped collect, and list that all the thanks said may be summed up in the words of the Western Governor, "We did our duty and we done it!"

MISS WILCOX IN SERVICE.

We are in receipt of following letter from Miss Lois Wilcox, and as the young lady has many friends in the county who will be pleased to learn of her assisting for the cause, we give the following to same:

New York, Oct. 4, 1918.

Mr. Copeland:

11 West 51st street will be our address for the winter, so kindly have news sent to us there.

Our friends may be interested to know that I have an exhibition of my paintings for two weeks, beginning October 20th, at 290 Fifth Avenue, at the galleries of Samuel Schwartz & Co.

This firm has charge of the exhibition as all my time goes to war work. I am in the Gas Defense Division of the Chemical Warfare Service, U. S. Army. Everyone will understand how happy I am to have the chance to serve the great cause.

With good wishes,

Sincerely,
LOIS WILCOX.

JACKSON-CARSON

A simple but beautiful wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon, October 2nd, at 5 o'clock p. m., when Miss Johnnie Mae Jackson, and Mr. H. Carson were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jackson. The parlor, where the wedding was taken, was decorated in red, white and blue. Quantities of golden rod and autumn leaves formed the altar, with a large American flag stretched in the back.

The Star Spangled Banner being played by Miss Anna Meta Buchanan, of Tryon, changing to Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party entered. First in the wedding procession entered the officiating minister, Rev. J. A. Langley, of Dillon, S. C., brother-in-law of the bride. Rev. Langley was followed by bridesmaid, Miss Mattie Lea Jackson, sister of the bride, and then best man, Mr. N. B. Jackson, brother of the bride; next came little Catherine Brown, who bore the ring in a white rose bud; then followed the bride and groom.

The bride was becomingly attired in a tailored suit of blue, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of pink rose buds. Mrs. Carson is a lovely young woman. She has many friends who will be greatly interested in her marriage.

Mr. Carson is a prominent young business man. He is now connected with the J. R. Wilson Lumber Co., of Hendersonville, N. C.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Carson left on the evening train for Hendersonville, where they will make their home.

HOW WE CAN HELP PROTECT OUR SOLDIERS OVERSEAS FROM GERMAN POISON GAS.

At last our scientists have found an almost sure protection for our soldiers overseas from the awful poison gas of the Germans which in the early days of the war laid waste so many thousands of brave young lives.

Every member of our community can help in this great work if they will. Our boys and girls, our young men and women, even the aged in our midst can come to our aid. This is an EMERGENCY CALL for help—an S. O. S. from our soldiers to our people. And not by money nor work can we serve in this; merely by thought and care and by always remembering the need.

Our Government wants every dry fruit pit, every fruit stone and the shell of every nut eaten by our people, also tin foil, platinum, pewter, or pure tin, but not cans as they are tin in name only. The Red Cross Chapter begs you never to cast away a single one of these needed products—you always thought they were just "waste," so did we, but we know better now—they mean LIFE, PROTECTION and a safe return to us of our soldiers from overseas.

We, the Red Cross Chapter, ask you to save every one of these articles; in your home have a bag or box convenient and when it is full bring it to us; deposit its contents in the receptacles for this purpose at the Band Stand near depot, and the Red Cross Chapter will get it to the required destination.

This is help that each of us can give—may we count on YOU?

CAPTAIN BASEY ALIVE.

Postmaster Stearns is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Basey conveying the information that she has recently received a letter from Capt. Basey, settling the question as to whether he was killed in battle in France or not. Previous to this letter the last Mrs. Basey had heard from the Captain was contained in the letter, extracts from which appeared in a recent issue of the NEWS. This letter told of his having been "gassed," and what a severe time he was having. The next heard was a cablegram announcing his death. Mrs. Basey steadfastly refused to believe the news was genuine, and did everything she could to have the War Department to either confirm or deny the report, but to no purpose.

It appears that Captain Basey was sent to a famous resort in the south of France to recuperate. While coming out of his room he ran upon a member of his old command, who remarked upon seeing him, "My God, Basey, where did you come from? Don't you know that you have been reported killed?" This was the first intimation to the Captain that such a report had gone out, and he proceeded to deny it, by cabling his wife of his whereabouts, but she never received the cablegram. He sat down and wrote her, she receiving this. He told her he was rapidly recovering and would soon be able to report again to his command.

The many friends of this couple in Tryon, will be glad to hear the good news, and with them we extend congratulations.

Think it Over!

You live in this county—you believe in it—you love it—because it's your county. Are you willing for it to be listed as a SLACKER County? No! You are not. Then let's get right down to brass tacks and put it on the honor roll. Its quota in War Savings has not been reached; therefore we know you will pledge your full part to help remedy this condition.

There will be a wind-up war savings drive in this county during September.

Canvassers, acting under authority of the United States Government will call upon you. You must pledge to buy every single War Savings Stamp you can to help save your county—and your boys.

Any further information will be cheerfully given you by Mr. B. L. Ballenger, County Chairman of Polk County War Savings Association.

Dollars that Fight

By SENATOR HENRY CABOT LODGE

The war will be won by men and ships, by guns and airplanes. To raise armies and supply them, to build the navy and support it, and to furnish ships and transport, we must have money in large amounts. The expenditures of the Government for the ensuing year are estimated at $24,000,000,000, a sum which baffles the imagination to conceive. That vast amount must come one-third from taxes and two-thirds from loans. The success of the Fourth Loan, like those that preceded it is, therefore, absolutely necessary. We must work with the highest speed, as if the war was to end in six months. We must prepare in every direction, as if it was to last for years. Speed and preparation are both expensive.

Without the Loans we cannot have either

We are fighting to secure a just, righteous and lasting peace. For a complete peace we must have a complete victory. It must not be a peace of bargain or negotiation. No peace which satisfies Germany can ever satisfy us. No peace that leaves Germany in a position to renew the war against us will be worth having. It will be far from sufficient to gain all our objects on the Western front—Belgium, Alsace-Lorraine, Italia Irredenta. The President with wisdom and foresight and great force expressed his determination to redeem Russia. Russia must not be left in Germany's hands. That would mean another war. Poland must be free. Slav republics must be established to bar the way between Germany and the East. Serbia and Roumania must be redeemed. All these things are essential. Nothing will bring them but complete victory and a peace dictated by us and our allies. It is a conflict of ideas. It is the principle of evil arrayed against the principle of good. It is the battle of freedom and civilization against barbarism and tyranny. We must win and we shall win.

We cannot win without money, and therefore, these Loans are vital, and the country should rally in all its strength and subscribe and oversubscribe the Fourth Liberty Loan
