"Long May It Wave."

THE MANLY MAN.

Probably there is nothing the world admires more than a manly man, unless it be a womanly woman, and it is to do what little we can to keep species from becoming extinct that we mention it every once in a while.

There are millions of manly men yet, thank the good Lord, but there are also an awful lot of men who are anything but manly. We have in mind more especially the youths who are just verging upon manhood, and they ought to give thought and heed to this subject often, as it is most important to them.

The war taught us that there is an alarmingly large percentage of young men in the United States who are deficient—deficient both physically and intellectually. Also that there is altogether too large a percentage of illiteracy and ignorance. There is no excuse whatever in this country for either.

No young man who puts in most of his time loafing around a pool hall, with a cigarette stuck in his face, his hat on the back of his head, form-fitting clothes with trousers rolled up over purple socks and beer-colored shoes, and a look on his flabby face clearly indicating that what he don't know is not knowable, is ever going to amount to very much unless somebody or some circumstance hands him a swift kick that will give him a faint realization of how mussy a microbe he really is.

Parents are doing their sons great injustice to allow any such stuff, and they ought to know better. As the twig is bent so will the tree grow.

Such young men leer at passing girls and make remarks to each other which no doubt they consider smart, but which, in fact, are a disgrace to their alleged manhood. From such young men are recruited the auto bandits and other criminals of which the daily dispatches are filled. Because of such young men hundreds of young girls are brought to a hell on earth which words cannot paint. They fill the penitentiaries, and send their fathers and mothers to early graves.

Every town in the country should save some kind of a community service whose duty it is to look after just such young men and to bring them into a better life—to make manly men of them, instead of the nonentities and conceited nincompoops despised by everybody with a grain of common sense.

The young man who has clean thoughts, who seeks education and knowledge, who acts and lives and looks clean, and who has an ambition to make something of himself, is the young man we all love and respect, and upon him rests the future greatness or degeneracy of this country.

SANDY PLAINS.

Mr. Ed. Walker has gone to Raleigh on a business trip.

Miss Velma Walker and mother were the happy guests of Mrs. Jessie Barnett, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Dexter Rodgers and Samuel Greenway were visitors at Mr. Zeb Rodgers' Sunday.

We are having some bad weather this week, a big snow fell last night, but am glad to say it's melting fast.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Green were visitors at Mr. Sid Feagans' Sunday.

Mr. Arthur Willard gave a cotton picking Wednesday night. Everyone enjoyed it that was present.

LYNN.

It will soon be time to get busy in your garden.

Mr. A. N. Kunkel closed his store last Tuesday to make some changes in the interior.

Dr. Pratt failed to shine, so did the lights, last Sunday night. The weather was inclement.

Miss Burrena Fowler visited relatives in Flat Rock last Sunday, returning Tuesday.

Miss Mabel Arledge visited her sister, Mrs. Albert Moor, at Melrose, last week-end.

Mrs. John Rhodes has been nursing a swollen jaw from some recent dental work.

J. B. Livingston, of Tryon, census enumerator, was in Lynn this week counting noses.

Miss Kate Panther spent from Saturday until Monday with friends at Inman.

Mr. D. H. Swann run up to East Flat Rock last Sunday, to see his daughter, Mrs. D. A. Goodman, who is very sick.

When the weather is good and the roads good, the jitney is blowing at your door; but when weather is bad and the roads are bad, the jitney blows for you no more.

Mr. County Commissioners, the iron or steel bridge at Lynn needs a coat of paint. A stitch in time, etc.

Archie Howard will move his family to Spindale, N. C., in a few days.

Mr. Ed McAbee run over to Spindale last Sunday, returning Monday, on a prospecting trip. Will move his family soon. Ed is one of the best and most efficient help the Tryon Hosiery Co. have in their employ, but another case of poor accommodations.

Watch the exodus. We are knocking, but giving facts.

You may fool some of the people a part of the time, but you can't fool all the people all the time.

The help at the Hosiery Mill have been expecting a change for a long time, for the better, but it's the same old drag along. The help claims the overhead management is not interested in them enough.

The president of the company don't visit the mill only a few times during a year, the sales manager never at all. They say the Tryon office had just as well be in New York, as far as cooperation is concerned. We believe the sales management should be familiar with all details of the manufacturing of the goods they offer for sale from start to finish.

We suppose that soon the church will get a few boards nailed on as some lumber was delivered last week. Who is to blame that this much needed house of worship cannot be rushed to completion? Who started it?

Convalescents Build Up On Pepto-Mangan

INCREASES THE SUPPLY OF RICH RED BLOOD—RESTORES STRENGTH AND VIGOR.

PHYSICIANS RECOMMEND IT

FORM—THE NAME "GUDE'S" THE GUIDE TO GENUINE PEPTO-MANGAN

A serious illness such as Influenza or other infectious disease always leaves the body with low vitality, lack of strength, and improvised blood.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan aid convalescents to a quick recovery, for it creates a generous supply of rich, red blood and restores the body to its normal, healthy condition.

That's why physicians recommend Pepto-Mangan, for they know that it imparts to the blood the material so sorely needed by weak, run-down systems.

Pale, sallow, thin, easily-exhausted men and women find that Pepto-Mangan builds them up wonderfully. A new supply of red blood is created, which in turn imparts the glow of health to the cheeks, increases the appetite, the eyes sparkle, the entire system takes a new lease on life. Pepto-Mangan is obtained in liquid or tablet form, whichever proves most convenient. Both forms possess identical medicinal qualities.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan and that is Gude's. Ask your druggist for "Gude's" and look for the name "Gude's" on the package. If it is not there, it is not Pepto-Mangan.
