Store Front Broken.

Some one broke one of the large glass fronts of the drug store very early last Friday morning. Some one at the yard office heard the noise, yelled at the would be thief who seeing that his presence was discovered be-look himself away in hot haste.

Car Trouble.

Last Monday an oil truck stuck on Green River hill. They sent to Saluda for help. Two of Saluda's citizens went to their rescue. But there are some disadvantages even with a new road on a rainy day, especially in dealing with cars or trucks, suffice it to say that after four hours work the said citizens returned tired and be-drabbled, but exultant for they had succeeded in bringing that oil truck in with them.

Saluda Night.

Last Friday night quite a number of citizens of Saluda attended the social given them by Saluda Seminary. During the evening the guests enjoyed well rendered choruses sung by the student body. Rev. Hollister's solos were much enjoyed. Also were the ones rendered by Miss Mary Coates in her inimitable manner. Everybody was happy and went home satisfied that Saluda Seminary is a valuable asset to the town.

LOOK INTO THE FUTURE

J Pierpont Morgan was a big money maker, because of his big vision —because he never allowed himself to be blinded by the things close at hand. He often said:

"Every man will go broke who is a persistent bear on the future of this great United States of ours."

This Bank holds an Optimistic View of the Future

We believe in the institutions of this town and community, and we are anxious to support financially any worthy enterprise.
