Calendar for April 1921, showing days of the week and dates.

Tryon Route 1

Many of us were providentially detained from church on our most beautiful Easter day.

Lee Thompson spent Saturday night with W. D. Owens.

Henry Shankle, of St. Petersburg, Fla., is visiting in this vicinity.

McClellen Page, of Landrum, was an Easter guest at the home of James Page.

Miss Nell Champion must have praise for untiring help that she has given in the home of E. H.
Edward's during his great trouble of last week-end, also Mrs. Lula Edwards our seemingly, nevertiring nurse.

John Henry Ford heartily entertained an Easter guest of Tryon.

Has Beulah sure enough gone to Virginia to find good roads?

New Hope

We are glad to see this nice weather after so much rain.

There will be preaching at Sandy Springs 1st. Sunday morning by the pastor.

Clint and Gilbert Webb gave a party at their home Saturday night. Everybody reported a nice time.

Missess Lillie Morrow and Virgie Strickland called to see Miss Lillian Tate Sunday.

John Cantrell who is sick with pneumonia has our sympathy and we hope he will soon recover.

Bommer Davidson and Misses Sallie and Lillie McSwain were out for a joy ride Sunday.

Roy Cantrell passed through here Sunday afternoon.

School here is progressing nicely but not as many inrolled.

Miss Millie Rogers had the pleasure of being with Wordan Cooley a while, Monday.

Miss Cecil Splawn was the dinner guest of Mrs. Toney Roach Sunday.

Landrum R 1.

The farmers in this part are most ready for planting, some are much discouraged, yet I heard one man say the other day he did not care if it rained six months. If that should happen I don't know what the guano company would do, if the poor old farmers' would quit working for them, as everybody knows that he does the most work and gets the least pay of anybody.

Well Easter has come and gone and twenty cent eggs eat pretty good.

The South Carolina folks still love Polk, yet B. F. Nance and family spent Sunday at Pink Hendersons.

Miss Annie Allen visited Misses Nora and Maggie Morris Saturday night.

Nathan Jones and wife, from Spartanburg, is visiting his ather, B. A. Jones, this week

Miss Ethel Henderson, from Glenwood school, spent the weekend at home.

Charlie Jackson and family from Gastonia, spent Saturday night with his parents, S. B.
Jackson and wife.

Mrs. J. P. Horn has returned home after spending a few weeks in Burke county with her parents.

Chauncey Barnett, from Charlotte, spent the week-end in Polk.

The Greens Creek school kids had a little egg hunt Friday evening.

Ray Cantrell visited Isham Henderson Saturday night.

Elder W. A. Reed will preach at the Cox school house Saturday night April 2. Everybody come.

Old man winter is with us again and our early bird garden women will have to blanket the beans if it keeps on like this.

Mill Spring

Regular preaching services were held at the Methodist church Sunday.

We are proud to say the Sunday school in our village seems to be taking on new life since spring has opened up.

Rev. Reed will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday.
We are glad to have him with us again and hope a large congregation will be present to hear him.

Mesdames, G. C. Brisco and J. H. Gibbs spent a few days in Rutherfordton last week.

C. V. Elliott, J. H. Gibbs, F. R. Coggins, and family, attended church services at Columbus Sunday.

Garren Skipper and wife attended church at Rock Spring Sunday.

The brightness and cheerfulness of Easter morn were dimmed by the sad and tragic news of a drunken row that had taken place about 2 a. m. in which Joseph C. Walker received repeated heavy blows in the face, which seemed to be severely bruised, said bruisers, as reports have it, were reported by his son N. G. Walker. How we do yearn for the time when we can have law and order observed.
It is reported that Mr. Walker's condition is better, we hope he will soon recover.

The registration for the high school is progressing nicely.
Very few that have registered have expressed themselves as being against it. The citizenship of this township is to high-toned and progressive for very many to cast the ballot on which is written or printed against the school.

Our county superintendent E. W. S. Cobb, informs us that he is expecting the state man who has charge of the location of school sites and buildings, is expected soon to visit different localities in this county, and that he will send him to White Oak township for the purpose of locating the site for the proposed high school building.

Pea Ridge

The farmers of this section were glad to see the nice spring showers which fell last week.

Mrs. Johnie Richards and brother, John T. Price, of S. C., are visiting their sister Mrs.
Polly Phillips, who is very ill at this writing. We hope she will soon recover.

F. B. Wilson and family, Hobert Whiteside and Armanda Lee Lynch, were the pleasant guests of E. S. McDade Sunday, also a number of other youngsters.

Clarence Newman made his usual call Sunday.

LOOK AT ME NOW-I'M 40 POUNDS HEAVIER-TAKING GARREN'S TONIC

Nervous Indigestion - Loss of Sleep and Appetite Brings Jacksonville Business Man to Verge of Break-down-Garren's Tonic Restores Health, Strength and Weight, From 135 to 175 Pounds.

"I weighed less than 135 lbs. and was on the verge of a nervous break-down in 1914, suffering from indigestion and started taking Garren's Tonic. After taking four bottles I felt like a new man, my weight increased to 185 lbs., and it has not been below 175 lbs. since," said Mr. John P. Couch, Secretary and General Manager of the Florida Help Supply Company, Jackson, Fla.
"There is absolutely no question," continued Mr. Couch, "about Garren's Tonic being a wonderful medicine, prompt in its action and always helpful.
I was absolutely conscious that I was being greatly benefited after using only one bottle and if anybody, anywhere, wants my personal opinion of Garren's Tonic and its effects upon my case, I will be glad to write anyone who will enclose a stamp for reply."
"Look at me now," continued Mr.
Couch, and imagine what I looked like when my weight was less than 135 lbs., and you will understand why I am so enthusiastic over Garren's Tonic. The effect it has on one's appetite is sufficient to make it one of the world's greatest and most valuable medicines. When I was suffering with indigestion I could not eat anything at all without intense suffering afterward, but since taking this wonderful tonic, I can eat anything I want. My sleep is perfectly sound and restful and I wouldn't take all the world for the good that Garren's Tonic has done me."

"I never object to my name or anything that I have been used, at any time or place, that will, in any way, help humanity and in this instance I have received too much good from Garren's Tonic to even hesitate in recommending this Tonic to people who suffer from indigestion, nervousness or stomach trouble of any nature. I do not believe that anyone can render a better service to such people, for I am now assured that Garren's Tonic will relieve the most obstinate case." The above statements are identical with those made by thousands of people who have been relieved from their suffering from the use of this wonderful Back-to-Nature Remedy. The digestive organs of the body are the most vital ones to the health of mankind.
Without food man starves to death and with food improperly digested he is in a worse condition. Garren's Tonic is composed of herbs and roots which deal exclusively with the digestive organs, giving additional gastric juices, proper elimination of waste matter and strength to the body by supplying it with an abundance of red blood.
Garren's Tonic is sold in Tryon Missild-ine's Pharmacy. Saluda, Saluda Pharmacy.
