Notice to Farmers.

There will be a representative of the Division of Markets of North Carolina in Polk County next week as follows: Columbus February 16, at 1 o'clock p. m. Hickory Grove, Friday, Feb. 17, at 10 o'clock a. m. Greens Creek school house Feb. 17th, at 7 p. m. Mill Spring Saturday Feb. 18th, at 2 o'clock p. m. He represents the division of sugar plants and will discuss growing manufacture and marketing of sorghum, and other sugar producing plants. All farmers who desire to make sorghum a cash crop on their farm should come out to some of these meetings J. R. SAMS.

The Drama Fortnightly.

Rivalling in its enthusiastic reception "The White Headed Boy," "Miss Lula, Bett" was read by members of the Drama Fortnightly, at the Library last Friday night. It was universally felt that every one in the cast did exceedingly well and especially Miss Sallie Streadwick as Lulu and Miss Diana Nash as grandma Bett were very successful. It is not too much to say that the performance of the entire company challenged comparison with that of professionals, and the reception given to each reader left no doubt in the minds of any how much their work was appreciated.

The play was read to an audience as large as ever seen in the Library. The lack of sufficient chairs caused nearly forty persons to stand all evening. Thus again was seen the necessity for a Little Theatre not only for the proper presentation of the plays, but to accommodate the ever-growing members who attend upon these enjoyable occasions.

At the next meeting, a week from next Friday two one-act plays will constitute the program. One of these will be Yeats' "The Land of Heart's Desire," a beautiful and poetic setting of an Irish legend, and the other will be "The Wanderweed," an original play written especially for the Drama Fortnightly by Mrs. Peattie, and based on a legendary belief of some mountaineers hereabouts. Music will also be furnished to fill out the evening's entertainment.

Riverside, Ill.

My dear Sir,
A few days ago Miss Anna Beach sent to our school two sets of books, "The New Students Reference Work," and Pictured Knowledge," the former being your publication. At once, I took time to look them over. I had already expressed a desire to have Pictured Knowledge, but I had not had an opportunity to review "The New Students Reference Work."

It is with sincere appreciation and gratitude that I express to you the thanks of our entire school and community. No greater or more valuable donation of excellent books has been made. We trust that this splendid spirit on your part will afford you as much happiness as it will us. So much like Lowell's view on that; "Who gives himself with his alms feeds three; Himself his hungering neighbor and Me. (God)

Again thanking you for your loving kindness to us and asking heaven's richest blessings upon you for your benefactors I am with best wishes, Sincerely yours,
DENNIS W. SIMMONS,
Principal Tryon School.
