Ben Blackwell last week sold to Mr. Parson, of Iowa his property adjoining Grant C. Miller, in the valley. Mr. Parson is a brother-in-law of Jno. Orr, our fellow townman. We are glad to welcome him as a citizen of Polk.

The Board of Trade is at all times working for the advancement of Tryon and Polk county. Show your interest in your home by joining and doing your share to help. Don't refuse to join and help and then sit back and expect those who do to rake the chestnuts out of the fire for you.

J. F. Black and wife left Tuesday morning in their auto for a trip to Iowa to visit their daughter and other friends. The distance they expect to cover going and returning will be about 3000 miles. Their address will be Sumner Iowa care of John L. Strosahl.

Mrs. J. H. Rion entertained a number of her friends Thursday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Frank Wood, who is visiting her at this time. This is Mrs. Wood's first trip back to her old-home town, since leaving here three years ago. Needless to say all the ladies had a very enjoyable afternoon.

The large and attractive, new fashion book from Victor Ladies Tailoring Company of Chicago, has just arrived and the beautiful styles and materials shown will be sure to greatly interest you. Also a beautiful line of dress samples to select your fall and winter dresses from. I will be pleased to have you look over the line at any time which may suit your convenience at my shop upstairs over Andrews'. Wilkins building. Mrs. E. RHODES

Mrs. Callender—formerly Miss Louise Kenworthy, with her two young children, was a passenger on the Santa Fe R. R., which was abandoned by the train men in Arizona desert inflicting much suffering, sickness, and even death on the passengers. Fortunately Mr. Callender, at Los Angeles, California—600 miles away succeeded, in rescuing this family in 24 hours, with his motor-car.
