

Miss Nell Crawley on Thursday last became the bride of Fletcher Capel, of Greenville, S. C. The wedding was a very quiet one, only the immediate family and a few friends being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Black. After the ceremony the couple left for Greenville, where they will make their home. Mrs. Capel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Crawley and has many friends here, who join us in wishing them a happy and prosperous life.

We Believe in COLUMBUS

We believe in our "home town." We believe it is the best town in Polk County in which to live. We believe it is an ideal town in which to live and transact business. We believe it is one of the best towns in public spirit and good citizenship. We believe Columbus is destined for continuously increasing progress and prosperity. With this spirit, we offer our services to the individuals and business institutions of our town, hoping to advance the industrial, commercial and financial interests of Columbus and Polk County.

with a large variety of New Jewelry, Diamonds, Watches, etc. We extend You a Most Cordial Invitation to visit our store and view the many new and beautiful articles of Jewelry suitable for Christmas Gifts.

WHO WE ARE

We are not strangers in Spartanburg. J. Lewis Farmer has for seven years been connected with Spartanburg establishments in the capacity of manufacturing jeweler and jewelry repair man. Edward F. Long has for the past four years had charge of the watch repair department at Biber's. We have both had years of experience in the jewelry business and will use this experience to the best advantage possible in serving our patrons.

New Stock in an Old Location

Just as soon as this deal was consummated last week telegraphic orders were sent to America's leading jewelers for rush orders of quality jewelry—Diamonds, Watches, etc. These have already arrived and are now on display. We have sub-leased the store-room of the Biber Jewelry Store and will remain in that location, at 103 West Main St.

Open Evenings Until Christmas.
