Moved!

to better quarters

We are now located in the J. S. Watson Building, just across the street from the old stand and next door to the Drug Store.

We feel that we are in a better position to serve the public now than ever before and welcome all of our old customers and cordially invite any new ones who are looking for the best goods at honest prices.

Next Week

We begin a Shoe Sale, with prices marked down very much below cost. It will pay you to investigate these prices. We will continue to maintain our warehouse and carry all lines as heretofore.

When Fame Comes.

No man can be said to have made a conspicuous success in his chosen field of endeavor until they begin to elect him an honorary member of organizations he doesn't want to belong to any more than a rabbit.—Ohio State Journal.

"Each and All."

No one has ever striven to do thoroughly the commonest duty of life, but he has added to the moral forces of the world. . . . For it is personal virtues that enkindle virtues in others, heroic example that most surely rouses heroic emulation in the souls of men. . . . True heroism is spiritual energy, force of conscience, strength of affection.—William Mitchell.

NEWS PHOTOGRAPHS

This paper believes there is no cleverer news talent in the country than that here pictured.

We count ourselves fortunate to be able to offer our readers the work of men like Richard Lloyd Jones, nationally known editor; Dr. Matthews, one of the nation's outstanding preachers, and Gilkinson, of cartoon and comic fame. The others are equally recognized as masters in their fields.

By special arrangement with the Publishers Autocaster Service, these newspaper stars contribute exclusively to this paper.
