

YOU, ENGINEER GAINS 34 POUNDS

Declares Tanlac Entirely Overcame Indigestion and Put Him Back on Feet.

W. W. Taylor, well-known locomotive engineer, living at 215 W. Hill St., Valdosta, Ga., is still another one who has found the Tanlac treatment safe and sure means to health, strength and working efficiency. Mr. Taylor has served the Southern railroad for twenty years and is highly respected. While discussing Tanlac, he said:

"For a year I had suffered from nervous indigestion and was in a badly nervous condition, having lost 44 pounds. I realized my condition must be remedied or it might seriously interfere with my work. Tanlac seemed to help me at once. I continued until I took six bottles. I gained thirty-four pounds and I was a sign of my old troubles. I was healthy at all times, and I consider Tanlac a great medicine. I have recommended it to many of my friends, and they told me they, too, were benefited by it."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Do not substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.—Advertisement.

Old Colored Mammy Knew What to Do

"Lones distracted with fear when my little 9-month-old baby had dysentery, but an old colored mammy told me to give her Teethina and she has given me no more trouble since," said Mrs. Nettie Barnes, South Bay, Palm Beach Co., Fla. "With my last baby I got Teethina before he began teething and he was never sick a day."

It is not always safe to follow the advice of old colored mummies, but when they are as well informed as this one who recommended Teethina no advice could be better. All mothers can inform themselves as to the proper care of their babies by consulting Moffett's Baby Book, which can be had free by sending 30c to the Moffett Laboratories, Columbus, Ga. for a full size package of Teethina.—Advertisement.

We are a good deal happier because of a lot of things we don't know.

Wrap-Around Coat-Frocks; Ultra-Chic Knitted Frocks

A STYLE idea which occupies a conspicuous niche in Fashion's hall of fame is the wrap-around coat-dress. Styled of the most elegant materials, with enrichment of embroidery, braiding and color superb, the spirit of luxury fairly radiates from this handsome garment.

Among other of its winning qualities, the wrap-around street dress has the gift of slenderizing the figure, for with a pin or a cocarde of lace edging. Another charming item is rococo ribbon, which is a very narrow sort in rainbow colorings. It is this dainty ribbon which is shirred and twirled into curls on the close-fitting bonnet to the left, until the entire shape looks as if it were made of crinkled silk.

Oriental colorings are everywhere present in millinery and especially are they featured in printed silks such as are used to drape across the front of the helmet-shaped hat to the right, which is topped with genuine haircloth. A tiara brim with Egyptian motif is simplest possible lines, departing from severity only when it comes to the huge ribbon tie at the left front neckline.

To every type and mood millinery responds most graciously this season. There are no arbitrary rules. Becomingness is the watchword. When one comes to think of it one's hat is wonderfully expressive of its wearer. Our coats and dresses we take as a matter of fact bought from the stand-

IF SICK TODAY! TAKE NO CALOMEL

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Straightens You Up Better Than Salivating, Dangerous Calomel and Doesn't Upset You—Don't Lose a Day's Work—Read Guarantee

I discovered a vegetable compound that does the work of dangerous, sickening calomel and I want every reader of this paper to buy a bottle for a few cents and if it doesn't straighten you up better and quicker than salivating calomel just go back to the store and get your money back.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your thirty feet of bowels of the sour bile and constipation poison which is making you feel miserable.

I guarantee that one spoonful of this harmless liquid liver medicine will relieve the headache, biliousness, coated tongue, ague, malaria, sour stomach or any other distress caused by a torpid liver as quickly as a dose of vile, nauseating calomel, besides it will not make you sick or keep you from a day's work.

Calomel is poison—it's mercury—it attacks the bones often causing rheumatism. Calomel is dangerous. It sickens—while my Dodson's Liver Tone is safe, pleasant and harmless. Eat anything afterwards, because it can not salivate. Give it to the children because it doesn't upset the stomach or shock the liver. Take a spoonful tonight and wake up feeling fine and ready for a full day's work.

HOUNDS SPOILED HER SOLO
Impression Made by Young Songstress Quite Different From the One Intended.

I was spending the week-end with a friend of my mother's, who lived with her eligible son on a large country estate. I was taking vocal lessons and took myself quite seriously.

The morning after my arrival, seeing my host out in the vicinity of the stables, I decked myself in my best bib and tucker and sauntered to the garden, accompanied by two big hounds. From the corner of a watchful eye I saw my audience approaching, and I burst forth in my most wonderful soprano. Simultaneously the hounds lifted their faces to heaven, even as I, and joined me in a most hideous cry.

My sense of humor came to my rescue, and I joined the master in his laughter, but I could have cried much more easily.—Chicago Tribune.

Harsh Criticism.
Senator Ashurst of New Mexico tells this story:
"The best story I know of is on myself. It happened several years ago, when I was making a speech in a little town in New Mexico and the crowd, of course, was made up of women as well as men. Up in the front row was an old lady, and I noticed her following intently every word I said."
"I launched into a defense of my policies, and, 'naturally, made the pledges I might be expected to make in the political campaign. Along toward the end of the speech the old lady in front got up and started to leave."
"'Sweetened wind,' was all she said as she stalked out. The crowd roared."
—New York Herald.

A Mexican Prehistoric City.
A prehistoric city has recently been discovered at the foot of the volcano Iztaccihuatl. The city is apparently four miles long and three miles wide. The city is surrounded by a wall and there are 28 pyramids. There is a possibility of the ruins being as famous as Teotihuacan.—Scientific American.

She Doesn't Go So Far Back.
"I can remember the days of Adeline Patti," admits Mrs. Leonidas W. Van Quentin, "but I certainly have no recollection of the days of Bel Canto, of whom the older music critics are always speaking."—Kansas City Star.

QUITE A "PROMINENT FELLER"
Fact That "A. Louer" Was Very Much in Evidence in Paris Impressed Jay Gould.

Mrs. Barton French, who had taken a villa on the sea near Monte Carlo for the winter, said at a dinner party: "We Americans are poor linguists as a rule. I remember a story that Lord Dunraven once told me about Jay Gould."
"Jay Gould was visiting Paris, and Lord Dunraven devoted a day to driving him over the city. There happened to be a good many apartments to let at the time, and to let signs—A Louer—were stuck up everywhere. Jay Gould didn't seem to notice the Arc de Triomphe, or Notre Dame, or anything. A queer, silent little chap, Lord Dunraven said."
"But at the end of the day's sight-seeing Mr. Gould displayed a little interest at last."
"Who's this here A. Louer, Mr. Dunraven?" he said. "Seems a pretty prominent feller."

An Appeal Suggested.
The eminent lawyer came back from court in something of a huff. There had been some words with the Judge.
Upon entering his office the attorney took up his brief, rushed to the big dictionary and began a search. Finally he turned to his partner.
"The latter awaited developments."
"The dictionary," stated the eminent lawyer solemnly, "disagrees with my spelling of this word."
"In that case," suggested the equally eminent colleague, "take an appeal to the encyclopaedia."—From the Green Bag.

Rich Harvest of North Sea.
It is estimated that the quantity of fish caught annually in the North sea would fill a procession of two-ton trucks reaching from New York to San Francisco by way of New Orleans.

Why divide the family at breakfast?

WHY take coffee for yourself, while saying "No" to the children? It is true, as most parents are careful to explain, that little folks should not endanger health and growth through the drug element in coffee and tea, but—

Your health is valuable, too—and their desire for a hot drink with breakfast may be as great as yours.

There's complete satisfaction in Postum, and safety alike for young and old. Postum is a pure cereal beverage. It is coffee-like in color and flavor, but free from any element that can harm. Thousands who are now saying "No" to themselves as well as to the children, as a safeguard against coffee-ills, have found better comfort and better health, in Postum.

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer the flavor brought out by boiling fully 20 minutes. The cost of either is about one-half cent a cup.
