Matrimony is the most efficient educational institution.

When the frost is on the asphalt and the driver's in the ditch.

Another good thing to take for a cough is the cigarette cure.

No man ever loses faith in humanity while the profits are coming in.

True religion is like wisdom—the more we have the less we parade it.

When ignorance is bliss it seems foolish to undergo an intelligence test.

Nature made a great mistake when she gave cats nine lives and turkeys only one.

An absent-minded married man is one who puts coal on the cut and puts out the fire.

You never can tell. A man may have his ups and downs, and still be on the level.

The man who wrote "Joy cometh in the morning" lived before the time of alarm clocks.

Egotism consists in blowing your own horn and scolding because the world is out of tune.

Holiday—The day on which a man does all the little odd jobs his wife has saved up for him.

A vindictive nature is the kind that makes the pedestrian wish at times that he were a tack.

Orange face powder is the latest fad among the girls. A rare combination of nuts and fruit!

The bloom of youth is charming, unless it blooms a little higher in one cheek than in the other.

A man never realizes how many things he disapproves of until his own daughter reaches sixteen.

Perhaps it is just as well that America was discovered before Europe mused itself up this way.

Freedom. No slavery can be abolished without a double emancipation, and the master will benefit by freedom more than the freedman.—Huxley.

Most of us don't object to a powdered face, but to the one powdered in spots to give a two-tone effect.

It isn't impossible to forgive a son who thinks he knows more than his old dad unless he is right about it.

The man who grieves because the horse is becoming extinct has never picked up a horseshoe with a new casing.

Everybody has habits, but you have noticed, haven't you, that it is the other fellow's habit that is always atrocious.

Since one American cigarette costs 1,000,000 rubles in Moscow, the question naturally arises: Why not smoke rubles instead?

The human infant is the most helpless of all animals. Otherwise he probably wouldn't be saddled with a portion of the war debt.

A scientific writer, who appears to be about ten years behind the times, predicts that in ten years there will be no servant girls in American homes.

Canada complains that we Americans know nothing about Canadians. Well, for the matter of that, we Americans do not know very much about ourselves.

Although it is believed that certain interests have designs on all the other close to the earth for a radio monopoly, interplanetary space has not yet been staked out.

Woman's determination is evidenced by the fact that when she shoots a husband or a stranger she does not put up the plea that she did not know the gun was loaded.

They say the people of the United States spend $100,000,000 more annually for candy than they do for education. And they don't get their dispositions very sweet at that.

At that there are so many pessimists continually saying everything is getting worse it will be a welcome change to have a lot of us proclaiming they are getting better and better.

Stanislaw Wojciechowski was elected president of Poland. If freedom shrieked when Kosciuszko fell, what kind of a yell is she going to let out if anything happens to Wojciechowski!
