

—(F. & A. Photo.)
Miss Anna M. Gerry, Boston singer and college girl, who became a trans-Atlantic stowaway on a dare, returning after seven weeks penniless, tanned and happy.

—(F. & A. Photo.)
Miss Judith C. Waller, the first woman radio announcer, has her post of duty at Station W M A Q, Chicago.

—(F. & A. Photo.)
The "Bishop of Wall Street," the Rev. William Wilkinson, 76, is shown here with his bride, who is 74.

—(F. & A. Photo.)
Here's the "world's butterfly king," F. Moore of Islington, England, with a gorgeous array of dahlia-shaped flowers made from wings of butterflies.

Unsmoked herring, showing a catch made by Nova Scotia fishermen.

—(F. & A. Photo.)
This is the original "Uncle Sam," a G. A. R. veteran of Washington. He is George C. Campbell and his pet aversion is photographers.